REAM FOR INFIELD

ROCHESTER MAN WILL PLAY SHORT STOP

GRANT REDUCES THE SQUAD

Austin, Butler, Cassell and Neal Are Released—Hogan Will Join Team in May—Green Again Defeat Logansport.

Danny Ream, of Rochester, Ind., will play short stop for the Greens in the opening games of the Central league. Manager Grant made this announcement this morning. Austin, who accepted O'Leary was given his release last night and he is now conferring with two other Central league teams. Pitchers Butler and Cassell and Outfielder Neal were also given releases. Butler could not get into condition and it was for that reason that he was given his walking papers. Grant thinks Butler has excellent prospects, but with the opening of the season near, he is loth to risk the water for a week nearly up to the neck," says Dart Shoben. The cold wave that struck the Fort Wayne crowd at Marion when the decision was rendered was not in comparison to the real thing that were that struck here a week ago and it did the local business under the old regime. Both to a five-per-well organized a club in the river and the conference was that the river overflowed its banks and for a week the ball park has been under water anywhere from one to three feet and practice was abandoned and the Toledo games were cancelled. The outlook of the team was not best changed since the first day the men reported for practice.

"Hogan is doing good work in coaching the galaxy of young pitchers he inherits from Grant and when it comes down to giving advice the coaches in quest there isn't a better man in the business than your old friend Hogan. Young Dubois, of Columbus shows up well and is a favorite with the fringe lady. Ireland, of Lafayette and Ind. but yet, get his ex-mitty glad to be back."
