100 MEN WILL VISIT FLORIDA EXPENSES PAID

A Land Company Pays All Railroad Expenses for investigation.

THE LAND THIS COMPANY SELLS MUST BE GOOD, OR IT WOULD NOT PAY RAILROAD FARE OF 100 MEN.

Interview with Man Who Doubts Sincerity of the Company's Advertising Announcement.

I read a very extraordinary announcement in my home weekly last week.

It had the ring of sincerity in it, but I doubted the truth of the announcement because it was so very much out of the ordinary.

A land company owning 17,000 acres of land in Northern Florida, near Jacksonville, offered to send 100 men to Florida to examine their lands.

The announcement read that the company would pay the round trip railroad fare and sleeping car accommodations both ways from any point in Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, or Indiana. Just to have their land examined, as they stated, "by responsible people who represented friends or prospective buyers."

While I doubted the truth of this announcement, I proposed to investigate to my entire satisfaction because I had read a good many advertisements about Florida.

All other companies want to sell land without making any offer to show the land to me or give me any inducement to go to Florida.

The tendency on the part of all other companies seems to be to push the sale of land in 10, 20 and 40 acre farms in Florida, without investigation, advising that there is no necessity of going to see the land. The announcement made by the company I refer to stated that they wanted their land investigated, and were willing to pay to have it investigated by sending 100 men to Florida at their expense.

I read the advertisement in last week's issue, Saturday night, and again read it over very carefully Sunday, and yesterday I took the earliest train for Chicago and called at the office of the land company, 1536 First National Bank Bldg., and the first question I asked was, "What do you mean by the head lines offering to pay the round trip railroad fare in advance of 100 men to investigate your land in Florida?"

The answer was, "We want our lands investigated by men before they actually buy it, and a club of men who are interested each in buying one or more 10 acre farms in our tract may elect one of their number to go and make a thorough investigation of the land and see the growing truck farms, talk with the people there, and pay to have it investigated by sending 100 men to Florida at their expense."
