KAIN DROPS THREE

STOGIES RELEASE DOMMEL, MERIDITH AND BUSS.

WHEELING'S HOLIDAY GAMES

West Virginia Fans are Well Treated by Schedule Makers But Cranks Wanted More Sundays—Players Report April 10.

Special to The South Bend Tribune.

Wheeling, W. Va., March 31.—Manager "Barney" Kain, of the Wheelings, is expected to reach the city tomorrow, and on the 10th the players will arrive. With three days' practice the Stogies will jump into the game on the 13th, when Bardenberger's National leaguers from Boston will be the opposing teams. Of the 30 players now under contract it is not likely more than 18 will report, and one of the first things to be done after Manager Kain arrives will be the determining of the 12 or more whose hands will be officially descriptioned.

Three Men Released.

First Baseman Dommel has been released, together with Catchers Buss and Rhoe, and the outlook for a good first base man and catcher this year has will be held down by Ira McNeer, recruited from the North Carolina-Virginia league, who is also a cheaper catcher. Andres will cover second, Jimmie Fox short and either Detter or Kain third. Kain will probably be retained in center field, playing the balance of the young Wheeling players. Kelsey, a Lancaster lad, is even now being sought by the Kansas City club, and if he goes to Kansas City the chances will likely be Lindsay, in center, Teddy Peloi, a Indianian, in goal, in left and Mike Ondagh, Chief Wye and several other outfielders will be tried out. Of the 12 pitchers on the list, Mifflet, Varner, Fox and Carriten are considered certain to make good, with eight promising youngsters to fall back upon.

Don't Like Schedule.

In the schedule, as given out from Marion, the Wheeling club gets nine Sunday games on the home grounds and 12 almost, instead of the even division that had been anticipated. This is considered unfair by the local magnates, but they are not disposed to kick over the traces, knowing how difficult it is to come up a Sunday game, whether it be a game of no matter of holiday game the Stogies are now treated, getting Decoration Day, Fourth of July and Labor Day double headers on the home grounds. While this holiday allotment looks pretty good on his face, it is really not as good as it looks, for the reason that all holiday receipts are pooled among all the clubs.

It is several years since the Wheelings have played on the home grounds on a Decoration Day, the last game being in 1897 with Brodie's Toledo aggregation, when the Stogies won both engagements with the Mud Hens.

Wheeling Team Portable.

Wheeling's ball teams have always been very fortunate on holidays. Even on the road they have usually split even or better, and at home two in a row has been the almost unbroken record. The remarkable rooting proclivities of Wheeling crowds has always been in evidence, particularly on the holidays, and more than once the rooting has pulled the Stogies out of the hole of defeat. R. M. ARCHER.

WHEELING WILL KEEP BLAKE.

Crack Pitcher Will Not Return to Cotton State's League.

Special to The South Bend Tribune.

Wheeling, W. Va., March 31.—Pitcher Will Blake will not return to Greenville in the Cotton State's league but will remain on the Stogies' list of star twirlers. Blake is a Louisville man. Last season for Greenville, Miss., he fielded .959 and batted .340.

The Wheeling baseball club has signed another pitcher, the 12th on the list, in Sharley Elsten, whose work for the Parkersburg semi-professional club last season was on the phenomenal order. He is a left hander, and is said to possess extraordinary speed and has curves and remained to peddle. He was wanted by the Charleston club of the newly formed Ohio Valley league, and was supposed to have signed with that club, but as the little league is without protection, not being a member of the National association of professional leagues, contracts with its clubs are not good in baseball law, and Elsten is eligible to play in Wheeling.

Ira McNeer, a cracker jack first baseman, who played in the North Carolina-Virginia league last season McNeer is also with the Wheeling club. McNeer is also a clever catcher, and is a good all round man.

Kansas City of the American association is making an effort to sign Third Baseman Charley Dolores, of Wheeling. Young Dolores is on all sides considered a comer, who will soon develop into one of the star fielders of the Central league. Acting Manager M. W. Irwin, of the Wheelings, states that there is no danger of Wheeling losing Dolores, as he has his signed contract, executed before he had any dickerings with the Kansas City or any other club.

ANDERSON EXPECTS GOOD YEAR.

Harry W. Crull Says Outlook Was Never Brighter.

Special to The South Bend Tribune.

Anderson, March 31.—The outlook for baseball in Anderson this season was never brighter. For several years the fans have been furnished with nothing but an inferior quality of independent ball and Manager Lindsay has shown wisdom in bringing his Central league club to this city.

Since the first of last November the city has been pulsating and the game has grown as interest in sports never before known in this city. Anderson is a member of the Western Boiler Pole league and a rink has been erected at a cost of $12,000. The season is now drawing to a close but the crowds that attend the two games a week range upwards of 2,000.

One of the things that will be in favor of baseball in this city is the centrally located ball park. Two squares west of the heart of the business district is the river and directly across the Eighth street bridge is the main entrance to the park. The grounds are already being put in condition and everything will be in readiness for the first exhibition game here early in April.

McVey Lindsay has been at his home in Silver, O., all winter but he will arrive here the first of April to open permanent headquarters.

VARSITY LOOSES FIRST GAME.

Is a Close, hard fought battle the varsity went down before the Toledo league yesterday by a score of 5 to 6. It was the opening game of the series. It is thought from this showing made by the college men that the proceeds will be here hard during the remaining games. Score:

EVANSVILLE WANTS PITCHERS.

Manager News Has Men Working on the Diamond.

Evansville, Ind., March 31.—If a few more pitchers would drop into Evansville, Manager News would evidently feel better. Those now here appear good but they will have to be reinforced. Hough, William Hartigg and Treat are still absent.

Frank Quinn has taken in the outfield and is doing fast work in center. While he is on the grass Knox takes care of the second bag and he is a stickler for work and is always on the move.

The throwing to second of Cross and McKinlar is a revelation; their work is about on a par in this particular line. They are both fast and steady. That Cross knows how to use his head is a known fact and thus far McKinlar has shown that in the two. Evansville will have as fine a pair of catchers as any in the league.

Lawrence, Bowles, Jacobs, Kuhn and the rest of the men seem to be anxious to get in shape for the opening game to-morrow. Kuhn is suffering from a sore knee, but it does not seem to affect his speed to any extent, while Bowles is a little lame from the wrenched ankle he received in the stands the last game, and a welcoming "sub" is the old man.

WILL ABOLISH MASS PLAY.

Rules Committee Decide on Changes in Football.

New York, March 31.—The intercollegiate football rules committee yesterday had a long discussion on changes in the playing rules, and adjourned until April 13 to finish the discussion.

Two changes were decided upon. The side-lines against will have the privilege of kicking off or making the other side kick. This will give the losing team a chance to get the ball and try to work it down the field, instead of having to go on the defensive again.

Future games need headgear will not be allowed and made will be forbidden except when they are soft. With this change mass play will be dangerous and it is thought it will be hard to get strong enough in the head to back a line under the changed conditions.

Although no agreement is reached as to the manner of forbidding mass play, five captains were in favor of stopping it. Yale and Pennsylvania being the only votes to hold out against its abolishment.

GREEN AND CARDINAL SUITS.

South Bend League Team Will Be Dressed in Style.

The contract for the uniforms for the South Bend Central league team has been awarded by the South Bend Athletic association to Stadler Brothers of this city.

The quality of uniforms will be the best obtainable. The shirts, pants and caps will be of a combination green and cloth. Belts and stockings and caps coats will be cardinal, the cardinal being green trimmed. The Chicago style of cap had been adopted. The letter-ing on the shirt will be "South Bend." Then uniforms will be the prettiest ever worn by a local club, as well as the most expensive.

READY FOR BIG FIGHT.

Terry McGovern and Young Corbett Will Meet To-night.

San Francisco, March 31.—Terry McGovern and Young Corbett will meet in their championship fight tonight, and all San Francisco is interested in the outcome.

The Brooklyn boy is under weight in prime condition and confident of retaining the championship title held a year and a half ago at Hartford. Young Corbett yesterday weighed 126 pounds but says he will make the 127 pounds required at 4 o'clock this afternoon.
