AKRON, OHIO, FANS LIKE CENTRAL LEAGUE BALL

AKRON INTERESTED IN CENTRAL LEAGUE

FANS OF OHIO CITY SEE CLASS IN BASEBALL.

HINTS OF A NEW LEAGUE

Reorganization of Carson's Circuit and O. & P. Discussed, But All Plans are Still Up in the Air.

The Tribune's Special Service.

AKRON, O., Sept. 18.—The news that President Schoenhurz, of the Columbus American association club, is expective to purchase a franchise in the Central league and place it in this city has greatly interested local fandom. Although it is a question as to whether or not Akron can support the high class ball played by the Central league.

Along with his report to stand a chance of securing one of the best cities in the Central and Ohio and Pennsylvania leagues may be started when the Central league directors hold their annual post-season meeting at Dayton, O.

Reorganization Limited.

Two Central and Ohio and Pennsylvania leagues teams forfeited games to the end of the season and if the leagues are to continue separately next season with eight clubs, each of these towns will have to be forfeited—Evansville and Grand Rapids in the Central and Steubenville, Beaver Falls, Mansfield and East Liverpool forfeited in the O. & P. league. The Evansville team was moved to South Bend, but the league retained its franchise. The Grand Rapids franchise was retained by the league and the team was moved to Newark. Newark stands practically no chance of getting in the league. If it could be arranged, many of the fans would trade Akron in and Wheeling in the Ohio and Pennsylvania league for Youngstown and Canton or Akron, put the Newark or South Bend team in Springfield, and the other road league club in a good town closeto Grand Rapids. But the Ohio and Michigan standings are in the air. Nothing definite can be done until the magnates of the two leagues get together, but with dissatisfiers an exchange of cities the chances never are in favor of cities before the winter is over.

GOT SORE ARMS FIXED.

Punch Knoll and Guy Sample Visit the Bonesetter.

DAYTON, O., Sept. 19.—Manager Punch Knoll and Catcher Guy Sample of the Vols have returned from Youngstown, where they went to see Bonesetter Reese about their arms.

It didn' take Reese long to take the kinks out of Punch's arm. He fixed the two ligaments displaced in the shoulder and then he pulled Reese aside and they back in place and said that the bone arm would be as good as ever after he had rested it this winter.

Punch is feeling pretty happy over this. His arm has been sore all over this season. He knew there was something wrong, but couldn't tell just where it was.

Reese took a kink out of Sample's elbow and gave the boy a massage and a lot of legs to second by doing so.

75 MEN OUT FOR YALE 11.

Foster Sanford Lectures Candidates on Gridiron Tactics.

NEW HAVEN Mass., Sept. 19.—Foster Sanford's arrival here gave the Yale football squad an opportunity to listen to two lectures on gridiron tactics yesterday. Nothing but rudimentary play was attempted, so 75 eleven being formed for signal drill at either morning or afternoon practice. Seventy-five men turned out. Baker Seventy-five men turned out. Baker Seventy-five men turned out. Weed has been notified that Wolf, Troubman tackle last year, has been conditioned in his studies and probably is eligible. McClintock and Dunn, of the last team, also are in trouble with the faculty.

Eddie Justice Thought He Would Go to the Coast Next Season.

DETROIT'S VETERAN PITCHER WILL BE TRADED TO THE WHITE SOX

The Tribune's Special Service.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 19.—George Mullin, the Tigers' right hand pitcher, will in all probability be a team-mate of the Chicago White Sox before the season ends. Mullin recently informed Manager Hugh Jennings that he believed a change of scene would greatly benefit him, and that he would like to be traded. It has been known for some time that he has been disatisfied with his berth with the Tigers, so Manager Jennings has been looking for an opportunity to trade the veteran. Although one of the oldest pitchers in the American league, he has many years of usefulness on the diamond. Having been a crack twirler, Mullin is a top notcher.

SOUTH BEND HAS CASH.

Terre Haute Does as Unreliable as Usual.

A correspondent at Terre Haute, in a dispatch to the Indianapolis News yesterday of Sept. 18, says:

"For days we have been reports of a stock company being organized at South Bend to drain the club for next year, but that, it seems, was mostly bluff and good will, with a whole lot of hot air. The real information is that this club must be placed after week."

The above is a sample of the unreliable dope sent out of Terre Haute at regular intervals by a correspondent who has not the faintest idea of what he is talking about. The stock company has been formed in South Bend with an able board of directors, and about 80 per cent of the money asked for has been raised. The company formed three years after the Central league season closed. When South Bend buys a Central league franchise the club will have the best financial and moral backing that a local association club ever enjoyed.

NELSON FIGHTS TO-NIGHT IN COME BACK EFFORT

Battler Will Take on Billy Nixon Over 12-Round Route.

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 19.—Battling Nelson, now known as the Durable Dane, will attempt to-night to prove he is still durable. The Redwood battler is to start his "come back" campaign in the arena of the Armory A. A. in a 12-round encounter with Billy Nixon, the young Lightweight champion of Cambridge.

Nelson has been training here for 10 days, and is confident he will be the Dane of old when he gets warmed up. He declares he will have no trouble in stopping Nixon before he gets through with his 12 rounds to the top.

Nelson has two more bouts booked before Marvin's club. They are with Young Ahearn and Matty Baldwin. These bouts, of course, hinge on Nelson's showing with Nixon.

LAURELS DISPUTE CLAIMS.

Inter States-Hildebrands Not Champions, and Issue Challenge.

Claims of the Steele-Hildebrand team to the amateur baseball championship of the city, have been disputed by the Laurels, another local organization. The Laurels insist their record is a better one than that of either the S-Hs or the Hinds, and are out with a challenge for either team to prove the contention.

The Laurels have played only two games, the K. & P. and the Lynch. They claim that had a game scheduled with the city champs for Sunday, but insert it has been cancelled by the Hildebrands.

Joe Connolley Traded.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—President Murphy announced yesterday that three recruits had been signed over to the Montreal club as part of the deal for Ward Miller, its outfielder. The recruits are Catcher Augustus, Pitcher Ferguson and Outfielder Kocher. The catcher was secured from Terre Haute.

"CHIEF" BENDER ILL; GLOOM IN THE EAST

PHILADELPHIA DISTURBED BY SICKNESS OF PITCHER.

MAY MEAN A GREAT LOSS

Championship Aspirants Are Given Jolt by Announcements That Star Indian Hurler Has Fallen Victim to Grip.

By Associated Press.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 19.—Baseball enthusiasts who follow the fortunes of the world's champions were a bit disturbed to-day to learn that "Chief" Bender, the star Indian pitcher, is confined to his bed with the grip. Because of their commanding lead, the Athletics fully expect to win the American league pennant and are planning for the world's series. Bender's illness may disarrange these plans unless he quickly responds to treatment. Connie Mack said in-day he expected to use the "Chief" in the coming Detroit series, and then rest him against the prospective series with the National league pennant winners. He still hopes he will be able to carry out his plans.

MANDOT SHADES KILBANE.

Southern Crack Wins Six of Eight Rounds in Hard Go.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 19.—Joe Mandot, who claims the southern lightweight title, added to his victory record last night by outpointing Tommy Kilbane, of Cleveland, in an eight-round bout. Mandot lost the first two rounds, but won the remaining rounds with plenty to spare, and no criticism was heard from spectators when the official verdict was announced by Referee Jack Ryan, of Memphis, giving the bout to the third round. In the final session Mandot landed telling body blows and hard rights and left to the jaw Kilbane never backed up, but was on the defensive from the fifth. A big crowd saw the battle.

WELLS VS. PACKEY ABROAD

Briton Will Accept $30,000 Offer of London Club.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—George McDonald, manager of Matt Wells, English lightweight champion, has announced that he will accept the offer of a purse of $30,000 made by the National Sporting club, of London, for a bout between Packey McFarland, of Chicago, and Wells. Claymer is Hurt.

By Associated Press.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 19.—Otis Claymer, rancier fielder on the Minneapolis American association team sustained a broken collar bone in the seventh inning of yesterday's game with Louisville, at Nicollet park. The injury will probably put Claymer out for American association honors. Claymer's loss is looked upon as a severe blow to the pennant hopes of the Minneapolis team.

CENTRAL LEAGUE GOSSIP

Unless "Red" Farrell, of the Zanesville team, who was drafted by Brooklyn, reports at once, he will be sent back to the minors without being given a chance to show his stuff. Farrell is a fast and fine looking pitcher, but he is a sport and may miss his only opportunity to being given a chance in the big league. President Ebbetts is said to be willing to give the fellow a chance to have his report.

Not a Zanesville player was drafted by the Class A's during the season which closed at Saturday midnight. It was thought that at least three men—Rogers, Stevenson and Twombley—would be drafted. Twombley was the most conspicuous, but the dope was divided when the drawings were made at Auburn, N. Y., Saturday. In order that the Zanesville club can clean up its outstanding bills and pay its players, it probably is collect some unpaid subscriptions. The Zanesville management had agreed to pay the boys $1,000 for players sold to Class A's, but Mr. Mc ante its affairs for the season.

The Ohio State league now figures on having a league for next year's circuit. Golf leagues suggested would include Springfield, Zanesville, Newarkers, Chillicothe, Portsmouth, Lima, Springfield and Marion. A general reorganizing would be necessary before such a circuit could be put together.

Pitcher Ferguson, of Springfield, has signed with Kocher, of the Montreal club, as part of the deal for Ward Miller, its outfielder. The recruits are Catcher Augustus, Pitcher Ferguson and Outfielder Kocher. The catcher was secured from Terre Haute.

WORLD'S SERIES TO OPEN OCTOBER 14

NO CHANCE TO BEGIN GAMES EARLIER.

Exhibitions of Mack Men With All Stars Make it Necessary to Set a Late Date.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Although the battle for the National league pennant has made it impossible for the members of the national commission to definitely set a definite date for the 1911 world's series, Saturday, Oct. 14, has been tentatively fixed upon as the date when the two rival teams shall clash in the first game for the championship of this and all other pennants.

This was the semi-official announcement made yesterday by President B. B. Johnson, of the American league, who returned Sunday morning from a trip which he assisted in the christening of Robert McRoy and James McAleer as club owners.

As neither the giants nor the cubs, the contenders for the National league pennant, have yet fixed the date for their games of Oct. 4, 5, 6, 10, 11 and 12 in order to close Oct. 7, the day that the Athletics terminate the 1911 season, a world's series opening earlier than Oct. 14 is impossible. The Athletics are tied up with five exhibition games after the close of the regular season, being scheduled to meet Johnny McGraw's all-star aggregation in Philadelphia on Oct. 7, playing at Washington, Oct. 8 and 9 and at Richmond, Va., Oct. 11 and 12.

Although Cincinnati has a game with the Cubs Oct. 12, the Reds and Giants will be free to open the world's series Oct. 9, playing three games before Oct. 12, and making that an open date to allow for the Cincinnati-Cub finale.

President Johnson declined emphatically the report emanating from Detroit that he had bought an interest in the Red Sox, stating that the stock transferred was made out to McRoy and McAleer, who, he said, had been signalized the day of the deal, and before that time the new owners of Boston intended to make any announcement for their plans for 1912.

The appearance of Jake Stahl's return to the game as manager of the Red Sox is far from bright, according to Boston advices, the former great first athlete is too well established in the minds of the fans to be a drawing card, so rather an offer, he matter how bright.

COACHES TAKE CHARGE OF HIGH SCHOOL TEAM

Good Practice Held After Day's Rest —Try Trick Plays.

The rain yesterday prevented a number of members of the High school football squad, but Capt. Charles Buechler put his men through some stiff work to-day to make up for the loss. Coaches Miller and Dunlap were on the job with the squad to-day and will immediately set to work on the development of trick plays, formations and the line.

Capt. Buechler has been in charge of the squad since Saturday, but he will soon be succeeded by the two coaches. Students at the school are enthusiastic over the prospects for a team, despite the agitation against Coach Miller.

In a letter to Capt. Buechler, Miss Gertrude Chatfield, of Everett, Wash., former member of the local faculty, has expressed her pleasure in the reorganization of a football team to represent the local school. During her residence here, Miss Chatfield was a loyal supporter of High school athletics.

CHAMBER SEEKS CRITICISM

Suggestions are Also Desired at Weekly Membership Luncheon.

Much interest is being manifested in a Chamber of Commerce luncheon which will be held to-morrow in the private dining room of the Y. M. C. A. building. As has been announced, this will be the first membership luncheon this season and is expected to be attended by a large number of members. Letters have been sent out announcing the meeting so that all members have been notified. Return postal cards have been mailed to members, the cards to be returned immediately to the Chamber of Commerce, the number indicating whether or not he will attend the luncheon.

The luncheon, which will begin at 12:15 p. m., will be followed by an informal programme in which members will participate. The idea of these luncheons, which are to be held every Tuesday, is to give the Chamber members with the work of the organization prepared to suggest and criticisms of what is being done and suggestions for other work. It is the desire of the officers that every member stand prepared to suggest and criticise.

AMUSEMENTS

The western comedy drama, "Jolly Jim," will be the Orpheum play at the Auditorium and will remain until Wednesday evening.

George Sidney, who has appeared here in many of his stage successes, will open a three day an engagement at Four Gables and Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 24, Mr. Sidney is a great favorite here and will be his first appearance at popular prices. Miss Ethel Vaughn, a local favorite, also will be in the supporting company.

"Get Rich Quick Wallingford," the George M. Cohan comedy triumph, will be the Oliver play at the Auditorium Friday evening. Since the opening of the attraction was announced there have been many inquiries at the box office concerning the engagement, and it is now apparent that the comedy has awakened the popular interest it is shown in "Get Rich Quick Wallingford."

Local devotees of music need no encouragement regarding the achievements of Grace Van Studdiford, the Metropolitan opera star. They can not forget her singing in "Red Feather," and they will be glad of her rebuilding in "The Paradise of Mahomet," her present vehicle, which is a musical play of distinctive merit, at the head of an aggregation of grand opera stars in the Metropolitan opera house, New York, when she sang many of the most notable roles in her repertoire. Miss Van Studdiford will appear in the Parisian comic opera at the Oliver opera house Saturday matinee and night.

Something very unusual was done at the Orpheum theater yesterday afternoon. McKenna and Simpson arrived in this city early enough for the matinee and were delighted when that their baggage had not followed. The boys had purchased a new set of fancy dress clothes while in Chicago and had left them in Toledo, but there was no chance for them to get to time for them to go on in the afternoon. When Manager Frank Fox got wind of the trouble he was fortunate to see the boys before the act, and he promptly decided that such people made beating the theater would be given a ticket good for either Tuesday or Wednesday matinee.

Rice-and-A Clifford's play, "The Rosary," is repeating the season with remarkable success. The play from the start tells how Bruce Wilton has been married to Mary Lane, a ward on his wife, Vera. Their home is a happy one until there creeps into it a note of menace. No one heeds it at first except Father Kelly, a priest, the friend of the family, who tells Bruce he goes to work to find the person who is causing the adverse influence in the household. Almost on the eve of discovering the cause, calamity descends upon the Wilton home, forcing the issue. Bruce is a man of honor, in the manner that he believes his wife innocent of his fate. Husband and wife are separated, the home is destroyed, and yet the cause of all this disaster is unknown and Bruce, homeless, sets out to find the author of his misfortune. Slow pacing and one may lose starting Thursday evening.

Beatrice McKenna, of musical comedy fame, will be the Orpheum singer, appear in one of the strongest attrices ever seen at the Orpheum (Mabel). The piece is entitled "Man Ways Than One," and heads the bill. Miss McKenna will be the principal in the sketch is a story of the efforts of a young man to get before the footlights as a singer. In telling her records, and it is done in a delightful way, Miss McKenna will sing the songs which made them famous.

The novelty of the act by Lewis and Dalton, "Bachelor Days," promises for its popularity. The curtain rises with Dalton in the bachelor quarters, all with the exception of the mantelpiece, which is seen to be not noted in the orchestra, stands a terrible discord. Lewis then discovered his partner, was responsible for the array and a humorous dialogue followed. Rose and Dalton, musical comedy artists, whose original dances, were clever and their act proved a feature of the bill. Edith Harris, sang with credit to an exceptionally constituted act, which she calls "Dreamy Melodies." Her selections of the dainty melodies were given by Tom McQuire.
