TKACK TEAM PICKED

TRYOUT AT NOTRE DAME

Captain Corcoran Selects Men to Represent University in State Championship Events at Bloomington—Some in Bad Shape.

Captain P. J. Corcoran has selected the men who are to compose the Notre Dame track team which is to contest with Indiana and Purdue for the state championship at Bloomington Saturday.

The team will consist of Corcoran, Shapiro, Herbert, Kirby, Gearin, Murphy, Uffendahl, Kearney, Sullivan, Rugeman and Glynn. All of the men are in good condition with the exception of Glynn at Rugeman. Moulton has his quarter-mile mare in the pink of form, six men running under 6:15. Uffendahl has been cutting off the half mile in practice in 2:01 1-5 and should do better than this.

Kirby and Gearin, two 16-year-old boys have been doing remarkably good work in the quarters and in the hurdles. Although Notre Dame is seriously handicapped in having no men in the bicycle races, yet with half-mile she should win the most by a narrow margin, unless the team leaves for Bloomington tomorrow.

The final tryouts for the team took place yesterday and the winners of the events were as follows:

Shot put—Glynn first—distance, 40 feet 4 inches.

Discus throw—Rugeman first—distance, 110 feet.

Hammer throw—Rugeman first—distance, 131 feet.

Two hundred and twenty yard dash—Corcoran first—time, 0:23 1-5.

One hundred and twenty yard hurdle—Herbert first—time, 0:18 1-5.

Pole vault—Sullivan first—height, 9 feet 2 inches.

Broad jump—Richon first—distance, 21 feet.

Pole vault—Kearney and Sullivan cleared 10 feet 6 inches.

CHAMPIONS PUGILISM.

Rev. James S. Stone, of Chicago, Speaks for the Boxers.

Chicago, May 14—Prize fighting has found a champion in a Chicago minister, the pastor of one of the most prominent churches in the city. Rev. James B. Stone thinks pugilism not only not brutal and degrading, but moral and uplifting, when rightly conducted, and he does not bar the knockout blow either. Besides favorably date encounters in Bohemia and other fields of athletic sport, he has a good word for pugilism. Dr. Stone is pastor of St. James church. Besides being the oldest Episcopal house of worship in the city, it is one of the wealthiest churches.

Indiana, 16; Culver, 5.

Culver, Ind., May 16—Culver Military Academy lost the ball game yesterday with the University of Indiana by the score of 1 to 15. There was no doubt as to the result. The game put up a Indiana game and were clearly outplayed at every point. Score:

Indiana	4	1	1	3	2	0	1	3	0	—15
Culver	0	0	0	1	0	0	1	2	1	—5

Michigan Defeats Chicago.

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 16—Coach Stagg's players were defeated yesterday afternoon in a game of which general speaking, neither team should be ashamed. Score: Ann Arbor 8, Michigan, 10; Chicago, 3.

THE MORTUARY RECORD.

Mrs. Jane Ryan.

Mrs. Jane Ryan, widow of the late Patrick Ryan, who resided on her farm about 4 miles west of Walkerton, died at the Longcliff hospital, where she was taken for treatment several months ago. She was a member of several lodges and they had charge of the funeral which was held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Walkerton, this county, her home. She leaves numerous friends here, and a number of relatives, all of whom live in the county.

Years ago Mrs. Ryan went to Walkerton about 1880 and later moved to Nevada, where they conducted a boarding house and had for their boarders the late millionaire, Senator James Fair. They several times had to loan him money for his personal support. The Rosalie King Mackey was also one of their boarders. They returned to Walkerton in 1890, settled on their farm near there and lived there ever since, her husband dying in charge of the nearby farm. After this he removed to Walkerton till his death occurred about nine years ago. Mrs. Ryan then remained in charge of her farm until taken to Longcliff hospital, where she died.
