VARNELL CONFERS WITH MANAGER

MEETS CASEY FOR THIRD TIME.

PITCHING SQUAD IS SAFE

Dr. James Expects No Difficulty in Building up Staff of Hurlers—Many Tigers Scheduled for Try-outs.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Dec. 23.—Dr James Casey, once a retired ball player, but next season billed to lead the local club, has arrived in this city to pay the city of his future labors and its fans his first visit.

Mr. Claude H. Varnell, of Wheeling, owner of the local Central league franchise, will arrive in this city this morning. Their joint arrival here is no mere coincidence. It was all framed up. Except for a few minutes Mr. Varnell spent with the eminent doctor at Detroit, when the latter was signed up, the two had not met and been together but once before and then for but a short time. Dr. Casey intends to stage a clever ball club here next season, and will to-day meet with the owner to plot plans for the coming campaign. Dr. Casey is now in town. Thus their present visit here.

Gathered around the doctor were a few baseball fans and it was in these that he talked in a brief manner of the plans he has already formed for the coming season.

Pitching Staff Safe.

The Billiken manager expects to experience no difficulty in the building of a pitching staff, despite the drafting of Robertson, Pfeffer, and Miller by the Tigers. The loss of Mullen and Ames from Detroit by Varnell are of high class. Hardin- and Skeels are the two of the cleverest men he has ever seen among minor leagues.

Regarding the Robertson-Chalmer the backstop, seized from the Tigers, stating that he is an excellent pupil, and can stand the strain of a hard fight.

He is also certain that he can get an first baseman from the Tigers. He expects to either land Gainer or Neal. Gainer played with the Billikens last season and Neal was with Casey on Detroit. Mr. Varnell considers Neal a star, too, and if Gainer is held he may be secured for the local club.

Casey will also have Mullen and Theodore, he is valuable. The latter, strong sports the name of Patrick Henry, or of some American as illustrious.

Mul-e be very fashionable the terrier has a very delicate set of nerves, and is unable to contain himself when he hears a voice over the telephone. He rather enjoys taking a piece out of a visitor's ankle, too, and is cross around the house.

But he's a good watch dog and pedigreed.

KID SHARKEY CHALLENGES

Local Featherweight After "Red" Hamlin for Boxing Title.

There has been little doing in the city in the boxing and wrestling line except private affairs in various clubs and lodges of the city. Material for these exhibitions is offered in the challenge of one "Kid" Sharkey, of Gary, who is anxious to box Red Hamlin, also of this city, for a bout for the 115 pound championship of northern Indiana.

The "Kid" has heard rumors to the effect that Hamlin is claiming the featherweight title in this section of the country, and wants to meet "Red" before some lodge of this city not later than Jan. 16. "Kid" Sharkey can be reached at Gilbert Unger's cigar store

Loose Change for "Bat."

DETROIT, Dec. 23. Battling Nelson yesterday received a letter from Hugh McIntosh, the Australian fight promoter, offering him three fights in London. The matches will be with the best English lightweights and will take place one each in January, February and March. But has not definitely decided to accept the offer. Meanwhile he will, McIntosh says, present stagging bouts for the National Sporting club of London. Nelson thinks that Battling Nelson and Tommy Burns will not be matched in England would be a heavy way to pick up some change while waiting for the champion.

Jeff Will Appreciate It.

CLOSE ENTRIES FOR TOURNAMENT

CITY BOWLERS TO MEET NEXT WEEK.

Successful Tourney Expected—Chalk up High Scores in Inter-League Games on Elks Alleys.

Entries for the city bowling tournament to be held in the city next week will close to-night, and it is expected that 15 to 20 teams will compete. All indications point to a successful meet, and with the training obtained in this tournament local bowlers who will take part in the A. B. C. tournament at St. Louis in January are expected to chalk up.

The entry fees will be turned into cash prizes for the local tourney. Competition is expected to be keen, as interest in bowling is more widespread this year than ever before. Scores at the Elks alleys last night showed what the bowlers can do when at their best form, which they will undoubtedly display in the tournament. The Elks and Stutzmen teams, the leaders, chalked up in inter-league matches. The Elks displayed fine form after they had struck their pace and had the pins toppling in merry style. They did not start off in good form, however, and when the wood was falling at an average of 184 pins, in the third game the Elks rolled for a total 1,000 pins, an average of 200 2-3. In that game Lee, 224; Ellis, 211; Hoffman, 210; Mellard, 172; Clark, 202; Delich, 182.

Staples, of Elks No. 2, bowled high score, 231, and high average, 198 1-3, of the evening.

In the Stutzmen of the meeting last night were:

Elks, 671, 841, 1,008, 2,520, citizens, 784, 807, 1,000, 2,591. Elks, 867, 1,000, handicap, 90, 93, 93, 93, 2,140. Bims, handicap, 200, 875, 934, 781, 2,520. High score, Schmidt, 187; high average, Schmidt, 184 2-3.

JOHN HENRY WANTS REPORTING TIME TO ROLL AROUND AGAIN

With many footballers, in a letter to Lee "Pop" Wills, secretary of the South Bend baseball club, John Henry Meyers, the Bronchu hero of many hard fought diamond battles, returning to the fold, a few days ago in an epistle to Ed Smith there was a glimpse of condition and intends to remain in good shape for all time. About the only thing that worries Meyers, as John is putting his determination to be in top-notch form next spring, is to practice before New Year's Day, and is already reaching into his sweater for a pitch.

John writes that there is over a foot of snow on the ground in old West Virginia, and that the river is frozen over. He is also lonesome and anxious to get back into the business.

"This certainly has been some winter, and I haven't seen anything since I wish it was time to report again. I am getting lonesome."

J. H. rolls home with a few more irreverent remarks, and then springs some real news.

"We held an meeting here the first of next month and I now some factory in politics around here, and just think, there are 152 votes cast in this city. I have been growing for the last 10 years."

How John Henry can get lonesome and yearn to be back in the game, is a mystery to his friends. As a pastimer the big Boiler ought to cut some figure, in fact be down-out some figure.

JUDGE AND THE PRESS.

Ohio Jurist Who Never Barred Newspaper Men From Court.

Judge Robert W. Taylor, of Cleveland, O., known as the judge who never barred newspaper men, died in that city last week of cerebral hemorrhage. He was 84 years old. During a Chadwick bankruptcy hearing in the judge's private room an attorney ending his argument said:

Your honor, in order to protect my clients in this case, I would request that the proceeding be kept out of the newspapers."

The judge smiled and replied:

"There is a reporter in the room now who has heard every word you've said. I have been accustomed to allow attorney and every other attorney in the district that any case that comes before this court, whether heard in chambers or in the open court room, shall be reported. In the future, cases of this district nothing of a public nature will be kept from the newspapers, and my room will always be open to them. The reporter in this room now has heard your case, and, as a matter of it is entitled up to date."—Editor and Publisher.

WHAT KIND OF FINANCIER ARE YOU?

To sell a lot of ground for $50 less than it would bring if $5 were expended in advertising it is very common—if not very wise—financiering.

To sell a shop or store for $5,000 when $15 worth of advertising would have found the man willing to pay $500 more for it—that is "near-sighted" financiering.

To allow a house or apartment to remain tenantless for three months, when $2 worth of advertising would have rented it in three days—is not a GOOD way to "manage property," but it is a very usual way!

Through all the little affairs of daily life we are apt to thus trample upon all of the Financial Commandments—making ourselves the poorer, and nobody else especially the richer. THERE'S A WAY" ADS WILL HELP YOU "MANAGE THINGS"
