STOCKS IRREGULAR IN DAY'S TRADING

ACTIVE ISSUES FLUCTUATE ONLY FRACTIONALLY.

READING HOLDS ITS OWN

Practically All Other Securities Show Decline Because of Uneasiness Over Address of Taft at Detroit—General Review.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—The opening prices of stocks to-day were irregular. The active issues fluctuated only fractionally with the exception of Canadian Pacific, which lost 1¾. Amalgamated Copper declined ¾, Missouri Pacific ⅝. Union Pacific advanced ¾ and Southern Pacific, Erie first pfd, ½. After the opening transactions a heavier tone developed.

A liberal supply of stocks came on the market and prices declined easily. Canadian Pacific sagged 2¾, Missouri Pacific 1¾, International Harvester 1½, Lehigh Valley, United States Steel and Amalgamated Copper 1¼ and Reading, Great Northern pfd, Union Pacific and Southern Railway 1.

Gains in the early dealings of Saturday were generally lost in this morning's trading. Reading was almost the only active stock which by noon had not fallen to the low point of the previous session. The decline was attributed in large part to uneasiness over the address of President Taft's speech in Detroit last erin the day which was expected to contain references to corporations. The failure of a bank in Philadelphia and one in Cincinnati added to the sentiment effect. Tomlen's ebullition at the opening in expectation of a further rally were disappointed at the lack of demand for any scorts and the bear clique which was forced to retreat on Saturday remained in control of the situation.

Trading became almost moribund after prices had fallied about half a point from their low level of the afternoon. International Harvester fell 2 points in all to $102¼ the lowest of the day.

Inquiry for stocks developed late in the day and market made up nearly all of its previous loss. St. Paul, Lehigh Valley and Northern Pacific rallied a slight fraction above last night's closing prices, the latter for the second pfd. 1¾ and New Haven 1¼.

The market closed irregular. When speculative sentiment had overcome the early pessimism the market showed progress upward and at noon quotations were generally above parity with last week's final figures of agency. Room shorts bought to cover all the tendency became definitely upward and the bulls met with little disposition to realize on the advance. Near the end scattered profit taking caused some fractional reactions.

LESS PRESSURE IN WHEAT.

Chicago Market is Moderately Bullish at Opening.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Lessened pressure to sell Canadian wheat at Liverpool had a moderately bullish effect to-day on the market here. Besides a decrease was reported in the amount of wheat on ocean passage, and there were indications of better harvest weather in Russia. Buying in Chicago though only fair, proved sufficient to lift price in a gradual manner. The opening was ¼ off to ¼ up, December ranging at 91@91¼ and then sliding down to a little above bottom and rising to 92¼.

Heavy rains retarding harvest in the Canadian northwest led to a further strengthening of values, but a reaction followed owing to a big increase in the United States visible supply. The close, however, was firm with Dec. ¾@¾ net higher at 91¾.

Corn was influenced by the rise in wheat time to come. The market however, was slow. December opened a shade lower at ¼ decline at 64 to 63¾@64, touched 63¾@64 and advanced to 64¼@64¾.

Diminished country offerings of old corn caused a rally in Dec. to 65¼@65¾ and not long after. The close was steady at 64¾ for Dec., a net gain of ¾@¾.

Although there was no trade in oats early in the morning, prices had fallen by noon. The cause was sympathy with other grains. Dec. started a shade lower at 41 @41¼ and sold at 41¾ and then rose to 41¾.

Arrivals of receipts: Wheat 47 cars, with 12 of contract grade; corn 143 cars, with 53 of contract grade; oats 91 cars. Total receipts of wheat at Chicago, Minneapolis and Duluth to-day were 363 cars, compared with 343 cars last week and 1028 cars the corresponding day a year ago.

Neither free speculative selling nor persistence met with such evidence of buying power that initial losses were more than overcome. First transactions ranged from 1c to 3c advance, with Dec. delivery, $1.01@$1.02 @c, corn, 65@65¼ and oats, 42@42¼ for Dec. and $1.02¼ for wheat.

LOCAL MAN KNOWS MUCH OF STOLYPIN

DENIES STATEMENT PREMIER IS PEOPLE'S FRIEND.

Adolph M. Fernbach, of South Bend, Has Intimate Knowledge of Russian Political Trouble.

News of the attempted assassination of Premier Stolypin in St. Petersburg was received with interest by at least one South Bend man. Adolph M. Fernbach, of this city, formerly a Russian revolutionist, has seen Stolypin many times, and also knows the lawyer, Bogrof, who tried to murder him.

The South Bend man, who he a noted linguist, and now in the insurance business in the city, came to America from Russia four months ago to escape persecution because of his political views. He had been allied with the revolutionists since a boy of 16. His principal service was as a messenger, but this cost him four years' imprisonment.

Mr. Fernbach is the son of a wealthy Jewish family, but all his relatives, except his mother, are revolutionary in their sympathies. His sisters have spent years in Siberia, and his father, who has been in both armies, another has been exiled to Siberia and still another is in prison.

The South Bend man disputes the generally accepted fact that Premier Stolypin is a friend of the Russian people. Stolypin, Mr. Fernbach, he is interesting in his persecution of the Hebrews and Roman Catholics. The local man claims the premier has sent thousands into exile, has been responsible for the execution of many others, and on film may be seen Jews being persecuted in Russia and Siberia are segregated in a section of St. Petersburg given over to prostitution and criminals.

Mr. Fernbach in his brief period of residence in this country has attracted attention by his knowledge of languages. He speaks 17 tongues quite fluently, and can both read and write 12 languages.

LIFE OF NEGRO SLAYER SOUGHT BY A MOB

Black Who Attacked White Woman is in Danger.

WARRENTON, N. C., Sept. 18.—Citizens of Warren and Vance counties last night attempted to break into the county jail to get George Marshall, a negro, and lynch him.

Marshall was placed in jail after having attacked Mrs. J. E. Chapin, the young wife of a white farmer at Vicksboro, and killed J. W. Abbott, her father, who had gone to her rescue.

After committing the crimes yesterday Marshall took refuge in a barn. Sheriff Davis and two men of his posse were the negro's pursuers. Davis overtook the negro. Marshall had his pistol at bay, and they finally abandoned for the night the attempt to capture him, leaving men to watch the place.

Marshall's father was induced to persuade other negroes into the barn on the promise of befriending the criminal. Once inside they overpowered the criminal and acquitted the posse. The negro was bound and brought to jail.

News of the crime spread rapidly through the two counties and the people gathered in Warrenton. Rumors of lynching and demanding Marshall. The authorities reasoned with the crowd, pleading with them to wait until court convenes to-morrow and promising that Marshall's case will be speedily tried.

Mrs. Chapin, who is 22 years old, was on her way to a spring when accosted by the negro. He held her up with a gun and ordered her to a secluded place. Her husband, her father, who was shot by Marshall.
