Tan And Blue Stars Will Meet Yearlings At Oliver Field

ALUMNI TO PLAY 'HIGH' SATURDAY

Many Stars of Former Years Will Play Against Burnham's Men.

BY TANAN BLUE,

Saturday the high school gridiron squad will have its hardest game of the alumni at J. D. Oliver's It will start at 2:30. The main idea of having an alumni game; this year is to give the prep elever a first class scrimmage before the first game of the season with Dowagiac Sept. 27. "Fat" Watters, last season's basket ball captain and one of the mainstays of last year's eleven has charge of the alumni squad, and it is expected to be the best alumni squad that has been represented for

Last season the alumni defeated the high school lads by the score of The game was up to the the contest by calling Fin . of line bucks, making the only touchdown of the tilt. This year both the high school lads and the alumni have better material. The graduates have the heavy and more. experienced material, but most of the players are out of training, this being a big advantage for the prep
