LEAGUE MEETING SET FOR FEB. 6

CENTRAL MAGNATES WILL GATHER NEXT MONDAY.

TO MEET IN OLIVER HOTEL

Annual Business Session and Selection of Schedules to be Combined in One Convention—May Settle Annis Squabble.

Central league baseball magnates convene in South Bend Monday, Feb. 6, notice to the club owners and president being mailed last night by R. A. Schmidt, President F. S. Carson's secretary. This is the third meeting to be held in South Bend since the inauguration of the Central league. The moguls will gather at the Oliver hotel, and the annual business and schedule meetings will be combined in the one convention.

Central owners, managers, and fans have been awaiting anxiously the annual meeting of the league for many days. The session has been postponed until the date named above because of the serious illness of President Carson. As a result of the late day set for the meeting the regular business session, the schedule session, the club-owner gathering, and the schedule discussion, as a rule set for the middle of March, will be taken up together. It is expected that the session will continue for several days.

Few Schedules.

Dr. Carson said this morning that the schedules had not arrived in as yet from the printers. Some of them have proven worthless in the past, however, and the magnates will have less difficulty in separating those worthy of consideration from the worthless than in years gone by. Schedules will be posted by the club owners, and many matters of interest to the league, including the Wheeler-Annis squabble, will be discussed. Dr. Carson said that the Annis matter, which was to come up some agreement, but adjudged settlement of the matter has failed to materialize on former occasions. While some time will be given to these matters, the selection of the schedule will occupy the attention of the magnates. Schedules will be the greater part of their stay in the city.

Managers of the league have been anxious for the annual meeting to be pulled off, because of the opportunity it affords to meet the owners with silver-lining of the league. The fans' interest in the matter centers about the resulting news, dope, and action on the part of the heads of the clubs in the Central league for the 1911 season. Manager Ed Smith of the Bronchos announces that there will be practically nothing doing locally until the convention, when the Bronchos' schedule will be handed out to eager hoodlums.

Who Will Attend.

The league owners who are expected to attend the meeting are: Elmer Redelle, Louis H. Webber, Dayton; A. A. Grant, Evansville; Claude H. Varner, Fort Wayne; Dr. Harley Parker, Grand Rapids; Albert Annis, South Bend; Louis D. Smith, Kalamazoo; Frank Terre Haute; W. W. Irwin, H. F. Perkins, Wheeling; Charles U. Shryock, president Zanesville club.

Manager Smith received a letter from Manager Ketchum, who is now hibernating at New Carlisle, spending most of his time out of doors, engaged in hunting or some other outdoor amusement. Elmer pitched some ball games for the Grand Rapids team in South Bend to Grand Rapids last season. He is in the best of health, now, due to his healthful outdoor life, and if he is not retained by the local club, he will be ready to pitch some ball games for the Dayton team, he is writing that he intends to "hustle" the best of success from start to finish, whether he is with or opposed to him, or a spectator in the bleachers.

"Mickey" is Held Up.

"Mickey" McCarthy, who paid a visit to his former coach, Smith, last week, left for his home in Ohio, Saturday. On his arrival there the little shortstop was held up and frightened out of a year's growth. It was not a highwayman who performed the operation, but a husky cousin who thought he was defending his home against burglars.

Apparent, on his arrival in Kankakee Saturday night, he went to his cousin's home, and as he had not made considerable ado in an attempt to gain admittance. A man in the flat upstairs heard the racket, and thinking it was burglars came downstairs with a shotgun and shot Mickey's nose. The cousin then realized his error, and up his hands without the ceremony he also decided that he did not want to star at brother's house Saturday night. "Scared me out of a year's growth," says Mickey in a letter to Smith.

McCarthy has been whiling away the dreary cold months in Mollie's style, hunting bonets of prey, sparrows, and the like.

St. Floryans vs. Turners.

The St. Florian indoor baseball team will meet the Turner hall nine Friday night at Turner hall. This is the first game of the season between these two teams, and an interesting struggle is anticipated.

Several other games for the St. Florians are hanging fire. It is thought games will be arranged with Mishawaka and Niles teams for their floors, about the middle of March. A basketball game is scheduled for the St. Florian five for next week.

The scaffold is the highest point within 20 miles. From the top of the platform is a view of the state capitol at Madison and the two chimneys of the university and capitol heating plants, 16 miles away.

STAG FANS FEAR DR. PARKER'S CHICAGO MEN

Semi-Pros Failed Years Ago to Make Good in Grand Rapids.

For years the leading independent teams of Chicago are said to have presented baseball of equal class to that played in the leading class B and C leagues of the country, including many players for major and class A society. It is from such teams that Dr. Parker has recruited several of the players with whom he hopes to win a high position in the Central league. Many of the players he has drawn from which Dr. Parker recruited he of class equal to the Central league their stars should be capable of doing great things. Parker, however, is not the first man to try to make good baseball appear to have a sufficient number of veteran league players to preserve the right balance.

During the first year of the Central league Grand Rapids was thought to be a good city for a Chicagoan who figured that he would do much with players recruited from leading teams of the Windy city. Not more than one of five from Chicago made good. Only a most three stuck in the league, and the fans of Grand Rapids made more fun for the Chicago try-outs. His team was out-classed in the race and he got off so badly that the league took the franchise away from him before the season was half over. Parker, however, has been due to poor judgment on Collier' part that so few of the Chicago recruits made good. The fact that every one of the players Parker has had in the Central league sought after by other league teams is a pretty good evidence that each is of considerable promise.—Grand Rapids Press.

BATTLE CREEK THROWS 14 PLAYERS ON MARKET

Financial Difficulty Cause of Unexpected Move.

FORT WAYNE, IND., Jan. 31.—Secretary Bert Daniels, of the local Central league club, yesterday received a letter from the management of the Battle Creek nine, of the Southern Michigan league, announcing the fact that the 14 players included on that team's roster are on the market and must be sold shortly. Financial troubles are cited as the cause of the unexpected move on the part of the Battle Creek club.

Several of the players on the list are men who were highly touted by maybe scouts who toured through the southern Michigan circuit last season. The names appear upon each player are very reasonable and likely to attract the attention of the major league magnate. Mr. Dennis will forward the list in Owner Varnell at once.

Numbered among those that the club is forced to part with is "Goldie" Rickey, the well known Kansas City teacher. The club official who is sending out the letter announces that Hendrixon was regarded as one of the most valuable men in the league last season, and that he was seriously tempted him among the most promising players of the league.

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 31.—The total weight of the Detroit baseball squad, according to statistics made public by President Navin, is 6,394 pounds. The average weight of the players is 171½ pounds and the average height five feet, 10 inches. The names of 36 players appear on the list. Pitcher Walter Smith is the tallest, measuring six feet, six inches, and Catcher Jackson drew the heaviest, weighing 198 pounds. Third Bassman Wolf, who played with Saginaw in the Southern Michigan league last season, is the lightest, he is given as 140 pounds, is the lightest.

Pitcher Charged With "Overload."

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Jan. 31.—Tom McCarthy, the baseball pitcher, was off of a stunt at police headquarters yesterday which resulted in his being locked up on a charge of intoxication. With several friends he hailed and demanded to see someone whom he claimed owed him a dollar. The station master informed him that no such person was locked up and he party started to leave, applying choice epithets to the cops. Result: McCarthy was locked up. He claimed to be interested in the opinion of the officers, and will be given a hearing this morning.

ABE ATTELL BREAKS ARM IN FIGHT WITH KILBANE

Feather Champion Will be Out of Game for Several Months.

By Associated Press.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 31.—Abe Attell, the featherweight champion, had the humerous bone of his right arm broken in the fourth round of a scheduled ten round bout with Tommy Kilbane here last night.

The boys were boxing only at fair speed when the accident occurred. They were locked in a clinch and Kilbane was pushing Attell back up to the floor. Suddenly Attell was folded about Kilbane's neck and though it was apparent to the spectators that he was under a severe strain, few realized that he had sustained severe injuries, even when he completed the bout. Attell was taken to his dressing room in agony. He was quickly removed to a hospital in an ambulance where the X-ray was employed to find the exact nature of the injury.

This was Kilbane's first engagement with Attell. He entered the ring weighing about 127 pounds while the champion weighed 115. Up to the untimely finish Attell seemed to be taking things easy. He did not extend himself to any extent and his left hand was always willing to mix and kept boring in continually. Attell had slightly the better of the fight during the four rounds.

Attell remained at the hospital the doctors declared that Attell was suffering from an intertectural fracture of the humerus. They declare that there was little possibility of permanent disablement, but the boxer would probably be unable to re-enter the ring for several months.

BISLAND INJURED AGAIN.

Ex-Stogie May Not Get Chance With Pittsburg Pirates.

WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 31.—Byington Bisland, one of the young star baseball players of the country, brought out by Barney Dreyfus and developed by Manager Bill Phillips, of the 1909 and 1910 Stogie teams may not get his chance with the Pirates after all.

A letter has been received in the city from Bisland, stating that he wrote that his injured leg had again gone back on him and he feared he would not be able to play this season.

Bisland, a short while ago, sent in signed contract to the Pittsburg management. At that time he was in good condition and was looking to a successful career for the 1911 season.

While carrying at his home in New York and doing the Marathon dance, Bisland injured his leg, which leg go back on him and dropped. He later felt sharp pains in the member and it now gives him much trouble.

It is thought that Dreyfuss, who thinks much of Bisland's playing, will send him to "Bonesetter" Reese, at Washington, for treatment. Bisland writes to his friends here that he doesn't think he has a chance for playing this season on account of his leg.

Stag Official on Scout.

MANY RESPOND TO BASEBALL CALL

DIAMOND PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR NOTRE DAME.

Coach "Red" Kelly on the Job—Ten Veterans in Line for Positions on 1911 Nine.

Forty candidates answered Coach Kelly's call for varsity baseball practice in the Notre Dame gymnasium yesterday. The squad was the largest that has reported for the initial baseball workout at Notre Dame for several seasons. The number of candidates is expected to increase before the end of the week. The day's work consisted of throwing and catching the sphere, and a run around the track to limber the men up after their long rest.

The prospects for a stellar baseball team at Notre Dame this year are exceedingly bright. There are 19 monogram men in the squad, all of them eligible to play on the team. With these men as a nucleus the rooters expect Coach Kelly to build up a strong aggregation. "Red" had three years experience on the gold and blue team. He played with the White Sox and the Cincinnati team in the Western league last summer.

Captain Jerry Dorais will be especially strong. "Bill" Rinn, Hoyt and Keagan of last year's team are in school and out for the team. Hoyt has been on the nine two years, and Keagan three years.

Dorais, who has starred on the Corby hall team as a twirler for three years, will be out for his team, if it is expected, will be chosen for captain, to mean to the pitching department.

The keystone position is the only infield place without a veteran candidate. "Remedy" Wilson, who stuck to the bench last year, is back and looking much like the third choice for the catcher's job. "Jimmie" Cook who earned his monogram on the team four years ago, is in school and eligible to play, and is expected to report before long, and is the most likely. Connelly will be seen on the third sack again this year. Phillips, last season's first sacker, was on the job yesterday. "Lefty" O'Connell is out after his position at shortstop.

Wilson and Phillips are the only veterans who are trying for positions in the outfield. Last year the former played in the left garden and the latter on the right side of the outfield. Veterans who are trying for Williams and Quigley are strong hitters, and fast men on the bases. Quigley starred last year as a base runner.

Connelly, Ulatowski and Phillips are also heavy hitters, the latter hitting with the club in the pinches.

The largest large number of candidates will report for a period of about two weeks, when the first cut will be made, eliminating about a quarter of the aspirants.

CLEARS BAR AT 11 FEET.

O'Neil Vaults in Good Style at Notre Dame.

O'Neil sprung a surprise on the track coach yesterday when he cleared the bar in the pole vault at 11 feet six inches. At the recent First Regiment meet in Chicago O'Neil was the subject of much comment among the officials and competitors on account of his peculiar form in vaulting. He takes a long run and when he reaches the pole, instead of the right foot which each brings his body around to the wrong side of the pole and causes two forces to oppose each other.

Coach Kelly does not think it profitable to try to change his form in the short period for preparation for the Cia first meet, so he let him vault in the style to which he had become accustomed. Coach Kelly and Coach Marie has been coaching him in the correct form. O'Neil kept moving the bar up yesterday and when he quit the bar measured 11½ feet. This is the highest mark made by any Notre Dame vaulter before beginning training. Coach Marie three weeks ago O'Neil never was able to do better than 10 feet six inches. The coach expects O'Neil to continue to improve, and he says that he will be a surprise to the stars in the A. A. U. meet at Milwaukee in March.

Joe Maloney, the stellar freshman, who was outside the Cia half mile in the First Regiment meet, is confined to his room with a sprained ankle. Joe is one of the only Fleet, who has not been training for the past two weeks. Joe will yesterday. He will be in shape for the "varsity meet Saturday.

Va., Sioux City, Columbia, and St. Louis to-night will attempt to lower the colors of the Pioneers, of Chicago, whose score of 2924 begins to look like a winning mark in the tournament now being given over the Bowling Congress tournament and are now leading in all three events, the individuals, two man and five man divisions.
