"AGGIE" GRANT RETRIEVES HIMSELF BEFORE EVA FANS

EVAS LOOK BETTER WHEN THEY WIN

ED. SMITH POUND FOR 10 HITS AND SEVEN RUNS.

ANGUS GRANT SLUGGER

Doughty Little Leader Shows Men the Way to Victory—Centlivre Gets His Eyes on Ball —Score 7 to 4.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 6.—Aggie Grant is redeemed in the eyes of Eva fans. His redoubtable warriors attacked the brave 25S. Smith yesterday and ordinarily found his weak spot. One ah lining was taken from 25S for the first three innings, the another in the seventh, and three more in the eighth. Aggie himself was one of the big factors in the victory, just as he was one of the factors in losing Wednesday. The score yesterday was 7 to 4.

"Cap" was up four times and sacrificed once. Out of his three officials times at bat he got two hits, one a two bagger, and scored two runs. He had seven chances at second, accepting six. "Cap" was one of the five slugger for the Evas. Ten hits were made off Smith and five were each got two. They were Grant, Angler, Lewis, Centlivre and Wilhelm.

Coffey was out of the game, but Watson did well in right field. He was at bat twice and got one hit and one run. In the field he accepted two chances. Kirby got two hits, including a two bagger. Kirby hit safely twice. "Buck" Connors was sent up to the clash up position, but he didn't get a hit.

The Evas looked a great deal better when they were winning. Luck was with them throughout the game and the boys took advantage of it. Three hits were made when needed. Carl Centlivre, the Fort Wayne boy, did not get a hit, but he got three sacrifices and stole two and smashed out two two-baggers. Centlivre hit the ball hard during spring training and he is expected to hit around .300 this season. The score:

There has been a lot of talk about the Bassler brothers. They are the Bassler brothers, of course, and they are the Bassler brothers. Bassler, Bassler, Bassler, Bassler, Bassler, Bassler, Bassler, Bassler, Bassler
