POWERS IS STRONG

CANDIDATE FOR CENTRAL LEAGUE PRESIDENCY.

CHICAGO MAN HAS BACKING

Well Known Sporting Writer Will Have Conference With Directors of South Bend Baseball Association To-morrow.

John T. Powers when candidacy for the presidency of the Central league was announced in The Tribune last Monday will visit South Bend to-morrow to further the interest of his boom. He will spend the entire day and a portion of the night in the city and will have a conference with the directors of the local baseball association.

Powers has entered the race to win and has all the financial backing necessary to make him a strong candidate. He will attend the Central league meeting at Terre Haute on Jan. 14 and will present the recommendation of nearly every well known baseball writer in Chicago. Whether or not Mr. Powers is elected to the presidency of the league he will feature the organization in "The Athlete," a weekly paper which is to be revived and which will be devoted to the interests of the national game.

Powers is Well Known.

Powers is well known in Chicago and is well known in sport and time ball player and as a writer on baseball topics in the Chicago press. His candidacy for the presidency of the league has developed much strength and has been the important subject of the last week in baseball circles. He was born in Sheffield, Ill., in 1866, and graduated from the high school of that city. In 1889 he engaged in railroad office work in Chicago, remaining in that city until he went to Fort Worth, Texas, to join the Fort Worth team of the Texas league. The team went on the "rocks" and he stayed out the season with Emporia in the Kansas league.

Later he engaged in newspaper work at Cripple Creek, Colo., playing baseball with the Cripple Creek in the Colorado league. He was managed by Harry Williams, now of New York, was winning his spurs as second baseman for Pueblo. Returning to Chicago in 1897, Powers enlisted in the navy as a seaman and was stationed on board of the Maine, and served a year from the U. S. S. Indiana. He was on the deck of that vessel in the decisive battle of Santiago harbor.

After his discharge he took up newspaper work in Chicago as special writer for the Chicago Times-Herald, and later formed a syndicate to report baseball affairs for the City Press association. In 1903 he helped establish the Athlete, a sporting journal devoted exclusively to baseball. This publication was abandoned for the present because of lack of backing, having full choice of the baseball department of the combination publications.

Candidate as Organizer.

Powers is a natural organizer and manager, and up to the last two years was managing player of teams in Trans-Mississippi and Western leagues. He assisted in the organization of the Royal Arcadian, Commercial, Dunkers', Mercantile, South Side Athletic and other leagues local to Chicago, and was a prime factor in forming the Inter-State leagues last year. As an organizer and manager, it is generally felt that there was not one semi-pro. or amateur league in Chicago which he been "knocking" the game, while last year there were 12 organizations of the Inter-State and other semi-pro. leagues. One of his strong conditions is his thorough personal knowledge of all the minor league players in Chicago, where the crop is large. He is also thoroughly familiar with every detail of baseball organization.

DUST FROM THE DIAMOND.

Catcher Kleinow Will Join New York American Team.

Charles J. Strobel has closed a deal with the New York Americans whereby he had secured Pitcher Quick and Catcher Kelsoky in exchange for Catcher Kleinow, who is regarded as one of the most promising of young players. Kleinow played with Toledo last season and took root in the local exhibition games with Notre Dame.

Eastern teams allotted to the Western circuit without giving definite assurance of their intention, has given power to circuits between Richmond, Va., and Montreal for the eighth city. The playing schedule will consist of 140 games. P. T. Powers was re-elected president, secretary and treasurer for the 11th successive time.

New York is interested in Sunday ball. The Greater New York club has closed a deal by which the Highlanders will play 14 regular Sunday games on Sundays and these games will be counted in the pennant race in the American league. New stands will be erected to accommodate 15,000 persons. The "laws" of New York have not enjoined Sunday professional baseball since 1894, when the old Brooklyn American association team played championship games on Sunday.

GAMES IN COMMERCIAL LEAGUE.

Martins and Per Se Club Defeat Company F and Standards.

The Martin's and Per Se club were winners in last night's Commercial league games at the Blue Alleys. Company F and the Standard Oil company tasting the bitterness of defeat. The six contests were witnessed by an enthusiastic crowd.

The fight between the Per Se club and the oil magnates was one of the most exciting of the season and the victory of the club men was somewhat of a surprise. In total pins the Standards finished 33 to the good. Two of the three games between the sudden and severe rivals were close exciting, resulting in victories for the small contingent. The scores were as follows:

Per Se Club.	1	2	3	T	Ave.
Weiss	139	144	152	437	145 2-3

GIVEN PART OF MILLIONS.

Michigan Wagon are Legatees Under Ex-Congressman's Will.

Syracuse, N. Y., Jan. 6.—By the will of James Jerome Belden, a former congressman, Mrs. Jane Andrews Barton and Mrs. Bessie M. Holbrook, both of Coldwater, Mich., are bequeathed $1,000 each. They are distant relatives of the dead millionaire. Mr. Belden left an estate of $1,000,000, including the Manhattan hotel in New York. Local institutions are given $125,000, of which Syracuse university will receive $50,000 and the Syracuse University Medical School $25,000. Five wives are given $1,000,000. Nieces and nephews are remembered.

To Frederick W. Barker, an executor of the will, $15,000 is left, and Interstate Commerce Commissioner Martin A. Knapp, the other executor, is given $15,000.

Mr. Belden formerly represented this district in congress and was a friend of Speaker "Tom" Reed. He will was probated here today. The will contains 15 articles and is written in his own handwriting.

INVENTOR HITS PROFESSOR

Says That Payne Has Not Appropriated an Idea.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Jan. 6.—W. P. Vanny, patent attorney, left for Chicago, Kan., to take depositions in the case of Frederick E. Dickinson vs. Winder Revell Guldpromsky, professor of electrical science at Purdue university. The plaintiff is petitioning the patent office not to grant letters patent to Guldpromsky for a new electrical kite which Dickinson claims is his invention.

He sets out and supports by correspondence and receipts that he had received Guldpromsky's ideas for electrical report and counsels, but that Guldpromsky has not appropriated any of the idea in his new kite. The patent is for electrically heating the air of the kite, keeping the heated air near and over again instead of drawing in cold air from the outside, thus the velocity of the wave is increased. The invention is strikingly new and valuable.

Fast Horses for a Bishop.

Indianapolis, Jan. 6.—A local firm has been commissioned by Bishop Isaac W. Joyce to purchase the best carriage team it can find and one that can step lively. The bishop is a lover of good horse flesh and expects to secure much enjoyment from driving.

CHIEF MARTIN M. COLEMAN, WHO LOST HIS LIFE IN A SENSATIONAL FIRE.

One of the youngest and best-known fire fighters in the country was Martin M. Coleman, who died in the fire which destroyed the Iroquois theater. He was a hero in the fire which destroyed the Chicago theater, but escaped with only a slight injury. Coleman had won much celebrity and medals for his rapid rise, due to extraordinary bravery.
