NEWS OF MISHAWAKA

MICHAEL GEYER, AGED 80, AND MRS. KREUTZ, 68, WED.

ANTI - SALOON SERVICES

National Field Secretary and Other Speakers Convey Pulpit—Marriage of Fred Beam and Miss Gertha Krugh—Teacher Weds.

BUREAU OF THE TRIBUNE, 104 NORTH MAIN STREET, MISHAWAKA, IND., JULY 14.

According to the testimony of Michael Geyer, aged 80, and Mrs. Augusta Kreutz, aged 68, marriage is not a failure, as both have contracting matrimonial alliances for the second time in spite of their advanced years. These two estimable people were united in marriage Saturday evening about 6 o'clock by the Rev. Henry Beuster, at the parsonage of St. Paul's German Lutheran church. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Napolian Putnude.

The groom is a well known retired farmer of south of Mishawaka, but who has been living in Mishawaka and South Bend since the death of his wife, two years ago. He lived with his first wife 56 years. In spite of his 80 years the groom is hardly said to about the city every day. The bride is a widow and has lived in Mishawaka some time. Mr. and Mrs. Geyer will make their home on Elm street. Their many friends in the city and township will extend congratulations.

Anti-Saloon League Day.

Anti-saloon sermons were also celebrated in this city Sunday by three local ministers being supplied by representatives of the league. Rev. F. A. Baker, national field secretary, and a speaker of national reputation, filled a splendid address in the Epworth M. E. church morning and showed how popular reform movement were, but he also showed that great advance had been made in the anti-saloon league movement. In the evening preached M. Barney, of Indianapolis.

At the First Christian church Rev. M. M. Barney, of Indianapolis, assistant superintendent of the Indiana anti-saloon league, preached a very strong sermon. He gave some very pertinent and interesting statistics. In the evening Rev. E. C. Tilburn, Ph. D., delivered an interesting sermon on "The Secret of Successful Preaching."

At the First Presbyterian church Rev. E. S. Shumaker, superintendent of the South Bend district, delivered a stirring sermon on the movement and also gave statistics. The male quartet sang "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Rev. William Eckert, formerly of this city, now of Racine, Wis, delivered a fine sermon at the First English Lutheran church Sunday evening to a good sized congregation.

Policeman Did Not Shoot.

About 2 o'clock this morning a "phony call to the European cafe starting that chicken thieves were operating in the John May property opposite the water station on North Church street, caused Policeman Jack Jarrett to the scene. The policeman saw a man and immediately drew his revolver and held it close to the latter's head at the same time calling to the man to halt. The man ran but did not scatter at once and the officer called again and this time the man answered "Don't shoot Jim, it's John May." It appears Mr. May was called out of bed by a noise he thought was thieves and was investigating when overtaken by Patrolman Jarrett. A less cautious officer might have fired and caused a very unpleasant tragedy. There is no chicken thieves.
