VENGEANCE ON RUBE

BIRDS SLAM SOUTHPAW AND WIN FIRST AT CANTON.

TOM WILLIAMS IS ENIGMA

Veteran Holds Chinks to Five Hits and Scores Two Doubles—Final Score is Four to One.

The Tribune's Special Service.

Canton, O., May 20.—Canton began its four-game series with South Bend here yesterday, while the rain poured and 1,500 fans sat on the bleachers and gently waited for the dreary end. The Bluebirds won by smashing the ball when needed, and they smashed it hard. Canton was not able to connect with Tom Williams' tosses to any extent that might have made the old Hampden boy feel uneasy.

Tommy has generally been easy for the Chinks, but yesterday he was an enigma, when it came to landing on him safely. Added to the finder ability to hit the ball their score was enlarged by unlucky errors. The loss of the game was not bewailed, as nearly every fan realized that the Indians boys had won it deservedly.

Southpaw Rube Rube Marquard had a spell over the Birds. Dade sent him in to win the game, as he had won two from the Birds in South Bend, but Bada and the common people were disappointed in the result. Rube had a hitch did to Mack was an overload. They garnered bits in bunches after the game was about half over and totaled up 14, of which Williams himself grabbed off three and mixed the couple of two sackers with them. The Birds were Fritz Fritz Pope, Jimmy Hayworth and Bush, each of whom tore off singles in bunches of threes. Everybody got a hit except Pope, Cormack and Grant, and Pope scored a double and Grant a single.

The visitors won the game after Canton had secured a lead of one run and batted in the victory by well-timed and hard hits.

RALLY FINALS IN FINAL.

Wheeling at Last Wins Game on Cotterts of Bobbins.

One of these rallies which took the first two games from the Wheeling crew fell short Saturday, but Teddy Price was thankful to leave the city with even one of the three games the Hoosiers played here. The locals made a laudable attempt to sack the final, but threw away several chances to win and while throwing threw away the contest by gloomy work in the field. A total of seven bobbles was enough to let the visitors run away with the game though their hits were frequent enough too, to make the final accounting 9 to 4.

Ed off day was the trouble and it was trouble enough. Zeke Ferrier was on the mound for the home outfit and was in the hole in the first, second and third innings, but extricated himself from the mire by good work on the part of his backers. In the fourth, however, Zeke fell into the abyss and pulled it in after him. Spangler started it by singling. The Hoosier then sacrificed and Spangler to second and errors let them both live, Aiva scoring. Miller hit to Ferriss and Cora was run down between the sacks, but Spahr fled out to Moberly, Cora scoring and Miller taking third on a wild throw. Moberly's good work in spite of Moberly's good work in the field, sending over Miller with the final run of the inning.

Miller hit for four bases in the sixth, the ball rolling far out of the park and the Hoosier Alert didn't appear to hurry around the way around, but Umpire Coffey didn't see the overright and allowed the circuit ride. McCombs pushed one out for a base in the eighth, went to second on Alvin Moberly's sacrifice and scored on Pope's red-hotter catch of Lefty Cora's cloud tickler, whence he scored on a fumble by Cruikshank.

The locals' rally came in the seventh and ended in the disastrous fifth. Pope, who up to that time had been doing some hurling, Mulcahy got in indoor on the right flipper and hooked to first. The bags began to pull then and Wesley, taking advantage of opportunity, allowing each runner a base, Albert Cormack filled the sacks with a short single. Hayworth's hit to Spangler snuffed out Molly's life, though he looked to have a little the better at the plate, as he hooked, and Spangler had to take a walk, coupling over the first base scum.

The second came right after when Dash drove a high one to right which allowed Texas to tally. Grant came in with a single, Williams, who had pulled way out of position, pushed one down the shorty way which Wee just touched, and which scored Hayworth with the third and last, for Zeke popped out. Buchanan will probably meet the Leaves on the Maple Leaves grounds next Sunday.

THROUGH A KNOT HOLE.

Outfielder Tyler has been released by Spalding.

Maloney has a good throwing wing. Tyler has a good throwing wing.

Tyler was in the game at Canton and got one of the five safeties Tom allowed.

Pitchers Downey and Cannon have returned to their homes. Manager Hunt is having found a place for them.

Pitcher Cannon is a brother of a Chink yesterday and proved a nine game against his former team mates.

Twenty-six hundred people saw the game at Evansville Sunday, through the street car service is tied up by a strike.

Pomona Hittman's grand record was smashed by Grand Rapids Saturday. The champions pounded him to a complete finish.

Williams' sight passed in yesterday's game at Canton. Williams is the veteran of hard work on the part of the vet hurler.

Pearl Hargrove will join the Birds at Canton to-day. He went down to Danville to play a game but had contracted for with the Independent team there for Sunday.

Pearson, who was released and Jr. Henry Myers is not bad. Williams handed three of them hitless and that should put him up among the best of the Birds' pitching staff.

Morrison's indisposition made wheelmen fail to deliver against the Birds. He won two games here, but southpaws do not seem to be a possible to the South Bend Bunch any more.

Pitcher Watson is playing great ball for Ford Chicks in the Wisconsin league. He has gotten a hit every game, but can, and yesterday drew a double and a single. He team is leading the league.

A change in the batting order was made in the Bluebird game Saturday. Price is now leading off, his ability to draw a base or get a hit being recognized by Manager Hunt. Pope scored a run yesterday, though he did not bunch hits with it.

Umpire Sheridan was found asleep Saturday and President Chance signed a new umpire, Quinlan, of Chicago, who worked at Terre Hute yesterday. President Chance has gone to Terre Haute to see the new man. Of the umps Chance has Sheridan and Chill, Conger Chill and Kinsa alone remain.

VARSITY TEAM HOME

NOTRE DAME ENDS A STATE SERIES TRIUMPHANT.

PLAY MICHIGAN NEXT

Ann Arborites Will Meet Wolverines at Capitol Field—Illinois Comes Thursday—Purdue Here Friday.

The Notre Dame baseball team arrived home yesterday after a triumphant tour of Indiana. All the players are in good shape, and it is well, for there will be the hardest possible work on the programme for the nine this week, when Waldorf's men meet first Michigan, Illinois and Purdue. The tour through the state resulted in another clean sweep of the varsity, ending with a defeat of Purdue Saturday which potentially gives the team the championship of the state.

To-morrow the rather Michigan team will come to Notre Dame for a game and the students and all interested are looking forward to the contest for it is believed that Michigan will be able to play a stiff game against the varsity and perhaps break the brilliant record of wins the gold and blue players have made. Michigan's strength is hard to determine for the team has not been seen in action, but has attributed the Wolverines from their schedules and there is no line to be drawn on them. It is thought, however, the Ann Arborites have schedule a game with Notre Dame because of faith of honesty on the part of the varsity boosters on account of the supposed strength of the visitors.

The Michigan game will be followed by a game with Illinois, which comes to Notre Dame from Urbana, Thursday. Notre Dame took the first game at Urbana from Illinois, but that was after the star twirler of the Illini had blanked the Notre Dame team. The proved easy for the gold and blue, but Illinois comes to the west is believed to have improved in three games and Michigan and Illinois are practically all that stand in the way of the title for the varsity. Illinois has proved a winning team in the east, but has met no easy league and has the usual strong team which represents the Illini uniform.

Purdue will be here for a game Friday, the last game of the Notre Dame-Indiana series. The game will give the South Bend people a chance to see the varsity team in action and will also decide the state championship, which is practically held by the varsity now.

Ten men will compete for Notre Dame in the Indiana inter-collegiate track meet which will be held at Terre Haute Saturday. Notre Dame has never had a track team in the state, but will be made good without saying. The dope sheet figures that the meet will go to Wabash or Notre Dame.

Spiros, 4; Mishawaka, 6.

Spiro's played in hard luck yesterday and lost to the Mishawaka Giants 6 to 4 before a large crowd at Springbrook park. The Boosts led up to the seventh inning, but then the balloon went up. The teams lined up as follows:

The line-up in the winning other was as follows: Lewinski, second base; Sparr, third base; Grant, catcher; McKinl, short stop; Herman, right field; Gray; first base; Sudak, pitcher; Hamel, center field; Gugt, left field. HEAVY TRACK FOR BROOKLYN.

Hard Shower Turns Ellipse Into a Mud Bed.

New York, May 20.—True to its traditions the Brooklyn handicap will be run on a heavy track. Rainy weather has been the portion meted out to the "Brooklyn" on more occasions than to any other of the great racing features contested about New York. A heavy shower fell last night, turning the track into a mud bed. Cloudy and threatening weather is indicated for the day.

Despite the weather and track conditions, however, a great crowd is sure to travel to see the Gravesend turf classic. Preparations for the big race. Horses in training have been carded for the event and the indications are that at least 12 of them will contest in the race. Such well known performers as Co Burgomaster, Colonial, Ben Brush, Sir Dixon, Sir Ralph, Pilgrim, Wonder, Sysonby, Butling are among the entries and considered sure starters. So close together is the form of these horses that it is difficult to pick a favorite. The guaranteed value of the race is $10,000.
