STARS IN LINE-UPS

FAMOUS PLAYERS TO TAKE PART IN TO-MORROW'S GAME.

SOUTH BEND VS. P. & S. TEAM

Athletics and Doctors Are Confident of Winning and Great Contest is Looked For at Springbrook Park.

Thanksgiving Day Games.

ATHLETIC.

South Bend-P. & S. at Springbrook.

COLLEGE.

Notre Dame-Purdue at Lafayette.
Illinois-Chicago at Champaign.
Illinois-Nebraska at Lincoln.
Minnesota-Iowa at Iowa City.
Michigan-Cornell at Ann Arbor.
Cornell-Penn at Philadelphia.
Lehigh-Georgetown at Washington.

PREPARATORY

Mishawaka A. C. A.-Culver at Culver.
Chicago Y. M. C. A.-Culver at Culver.
Chicago B. C.-Culver at Culver.

Confident of victory the Athletics & Surgeons football team will come from Chicago to-morrow to do battle with the South Bend Athletics who are equally sure of winning the honors of the day. With neither team willing to admit the superiority of the other a fair day should send from 2,000 to 3,000 football enthusiasts to Springbrook park to witness the big game, which will be called at 2:30 o'clock.

There is no questioning the fact that the contest will be exciting and as fiercely fought as any game ever played on a local gridiron with the possible exception of the celebrated Commercial-Athletic club-Chicago Athletic association game several years ago.

Both eleven will present all-star lineups and while the degree of team work will not be of that high state of development which characterizes the work of college teams, the individual work of the players will make the fight just as keen and desperate.

The Athletic team of this city has real eleven has one that will come defeated the crack Toledo team, one of the strongest professional organizations in the west, the Chicago Doctors defeated the Rockfords, considered one of the best football players in the country, the P. & S. undoubtedly is able to more than hold their own with any other professional team in the professional eleven in this section. The doctors, too, have men on the team who have fought many hard games while playing on the greatest eleven of the west. Dunn, who is said to be the greatest tackle ever turned out at Purdue will be on hand to back against McWeeny, a player who has never been forced to play second fiddle to any opponent. Other players like Kaiser, Griffin, and Hall, other well known college men, will also be in the lineup.

South Bend will depend on the two Koehlers for her greatest gains. These two men need no introduction to the local public for their work in the Athletic-Toledo game a few months ago is not forgotten. Frank Hal Herring, the swiftest and cleverest quarter-back that the west has known will return to the gridiron after an absence of two years and will undoubtedly take care of the all-important place behind the line. He will also direct the play of the Athletics and if he displays any of his old time strategy the Doctors will have a hard game on their hands. On the line will be Peter Studebaker, McWeeny, Luther and Zeuble, Valier, Shirey, Healy and Curry. The lineup will be as follows:

| P. & S. | | South Bend. | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Curry | R.E. | Valier | L.E. |
| Healy | R.T. | Zeuble | L.T. |
| Ahrens | R.G. | Luther | L.G. |
| Hall | C. | Studebaker | C. |
| Dunn | L.G. | Shirey | R.G. |
| Griffin | L.T. | McWeeny | R.T. |
| Hutchinson | L.E. | Curry | R.E. |
| Griffin | Q.B. | Herring | Q.B. |
| Kaiser | L.H. | Koehler | L.H. |
| Weber | R.H. | Koehler | R.H. |
| Kennedy | F.B. | Koehler | F.B. |

Interest in Lafayette Game.

Dispatches from Lafayette this afternoon indicate that the Boilermakers are expecting Notre Dame to put up a hard and terrific fight to retain the Big-Six championship. The town is filled with football enthusiasts from all over the state who have come to be witnessed by one of the largest crowds that has ever looked on a Purdue-Notre Dame contest.

Although expecting a fierce battle Purdue rooters are sure that their team is sure to win by at least two touchdowns.

The Notre Dame squad left for Lafayette over the Vandalia at 7:35 this morning and arrived at their destination about noon. The team was not accompanied by rooters and the players will go into the game without the cheers and plaudits with which they were showered when they played past on Thanksgiving Day. It seems the students at Notre Dame there is a feeling that the varsity will do well if the Purdue game is won.

Notre Dame Has Cripples.

Of the Notre Dame eleven only four of the regular men, Hogan, Funk, Cofall and Dean, play up to gold condition. The injuries to Bergman, Desmond and Mullaney should cripple not less the fortunes of every game he has played this year. Desmond has been out against DePauw and is out of the game for the remainder of the season. Bergman, the star center, has a severe injured knee that will hamper his start against Purdue he cannot last long. Mullaney, Desmond's substitute, will play the ends although both have been out for weeks with bruises and Anson, the big Indiana defensive work against DePauw and Wabash, is reported that he will not be hampered with a sprain ankle.

MICHIGAN BETTER THAN YALE.

Director Bond, of Wolverines, Compares Two Teams.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 22.—"Michigan, I believe, could have beaten Yale last Saturday," was the statement of Director Charles Baird, who returned from the east yesterday. "I am not too confident in this opinion," he added, "but from comparison of the two teams the conversation has been made on the Michigan eleven. Both teams have their own points of superiority. The Yale eleven were in better shape for the Michigan lineamen, but in team work, I think the Yale line was better than Michigan's.

"Yale's defenses seemed to know more of the tricks of the game than our five plays. Their tactics were unquestionably superior to ours. Yale's line in this department of the game, however, was not better than Michigan's. The back field here Yale's most has the decided advantage, for they are just as fast as Yale's and just as heavy and are heavier and more powerful because of their weight. Yale's back field is better it may than Yale's. The Michigan tackles in carrying the ball would without doubt score on Yale.

"Yale's offensive is unimpressive. It has not the punch of Harvard's. In the game against Harvard and they were slower than the wolverines. However, all the Yale men were trying to score. In tackling the Michigan back field Yale's line was better and gave Michigan the best gain of the last year. Yale and Harvard already have full schedules arranged. It is well we anticipate an entirely different game for Michigan if the Cornell contests go out this year. We have many possibilities for western contests."

GRADS TO BAR FRESHIES.

Think Students Should Not be Athletes During First College Year.

Alumni of the "big four" conference who are members of the managing committee on intercollegiate athletics are in favor of the one year residence rule for freshmen, as well as for transfers and graduates.

At a meeting of the committee in Chicago yesterday a resolution was passed favoring the adoption of such a regulation by the faculty representatives at their next meeting. The trouble has been that different institutions have tried to get fresh high athletes. Last year a well known prep was offered a chair and his fare to

CAPTAIN TORREY, OF PENNSYLVANIA FOOTBALL TEAM.

Captain Torrey, of the Quakers team, expects to gather his laurels against the Tigers on Thanksgiving and with a clean record. So far Pennsylvania's goal line has not been crossed and if it did not thirty-four Cornell will be able to gain the ball over for a touchdown or a goal.

SOME STRAY PUNTS FROM TOLEDO

Many high compliments were paid to the South Bend Athletics after the Toledo-South Bend game last Sunday. A few stray points from the Toledo Blade follow:

The South Bend players are a fine lot of fellows who play the game for exercise and because they like it and not through any remarkable spirit. Cleaner and more enjoyable games than the last two contests were never seen on any field.

The T. A. A. team played fine ball yesterday, and, although defeated, were not disgraced. It is no disgrace to be beaten by South Bend. That club contains a number of fine players and with the series Salmon is guide them and take the ball when a gain is needed they are a hard nut to crack.

Although Salmon directed all the plays, he did not spare himself, and he certainly took the ball on 1st third down when several yards were needed. He is the strongest of the line himself on the third attempt rather than punt and he made good his attempt most of the time. Here he did his fine work for the whole T. A. A. team who knew just what was coming in the center of his group of players. He would hit the line with a plunge, and, by means of a wiggling movement on his elbows and knees that would carry the ball nearly 10 yards.

The Hoosiers always bounced at critical moments, and, by means of their the coal and started one of these rip ping, tearing, bending, crawling, twisting, writhing runs that Salmon alone can make. He broke through the line, and, if he was not stopped half of the T. A. A. players bounced on some part of his anatomy, and the remainder usually endeavored to block his passage. Several more brilliant runs by the fullback brought the ball dangerously near the Toledo end and it looked like a touchdown for South Bend when time was up for the first half.

In the beginning of the second half Toledo kicked off to South Bend who started the ball from their own 20-yard line to the Toledo 40-yard line on straight line smashes. A week ago South Bend came to Toledo, and, with the Toledo boys at a 6 to 0 score, that occasion Salmon took things right in his hand and made the team present the Hoosiers' goal line. But yesterday, with the Toledo team, the Hoosiers had to do the Leslie Carter act. Salmon was not the same player. Over since the Toledo game he has been two years ago football followers have read in the sporting pages of the yellow stories of the prowess of the mighty fullback. To them he had "Toledo dizzy!" Sporting men bet and a speed of not less than a mile a minute took the ball on 1st third down when several yards were needed. many institutions. This condition leads to a violation of pure athletics, for when the schools begin such a competition it is impossible to prevent inducements aside from those recognized legitimate from an amateur standpoint.

This bidding for his services turns the head of the freshman and injures his entire collegiate career. He is induced to leave his home and his associates and his surroundings become unpleasant with the college spirit that is essential to true sportsmanship in this kind of athletics.
