The Tribune's Special Service.

Terre Haute, Ind., July 3.—With 800 adoring fans cheering him to the echo and with his teammates giving him almost perfect support, Cecil "Happy" Ferguson, pitched a great game against his fellow townsmen yesterday afternoon and won the game by a score of 4 to 3.

The sons of Terre Haute had mastery control of the ball and really pitched a shutout game. The "Hottentots" only scores were made on errors. Four hits were all that Ferguson allowed. He also made a pretty single and fielded his position in excellent style.

Terre Haute had younger Grube, a collegian on the mound and while he pitched good ball, fielded the position faultlessly and cracked out two of Terre Haute's four hits, he lost because of poor support, the men behind him making eight errors.

Terre Haute jumped into the lead as soon as the game was under way. Beecher started the first inning by scoring a pass from "Fergie" and going to third on Grube's error. Dourmand hit for a single and stolen the latter stole second. Beecher scored on Terre Haute's second run was scored in the second With "Buck" Connon, the South Bend team hit just Grant, a sacrifice sent him to second and an error by Chagwell allowed him to score. After the second Terre Haute did not have a look in at the game, the Greens putting up a brilliant game which with their pretty batting won them the game.

It was in the fourth that South Bend got the "Hunt" to the bad and tied the score. Groesbeck led off and nearly carried Dourmand over the third sack with a hard drive down the line. The third baseman failed to field it properly and the "big fellow" got safe on the initial sack. Spangler made the game interesting by sacrificing his team mate to second. Tieman hit a long fly to center and when "Pop" Thompson allowed the sphere to get the best of him, Groesbeck dashed around the bases for the visitor's first run. With Tieman on second, Ferguson hit safe and put his clever back stop over the plate with the run which tied the score. In the ninth inning Ferguson reached first on Conroy's error and Coffey hit to Richardson at second. The latter threw wild and the runner was safe. Ferguson was on third and Coffey on second. Both scored on Anderson's hit to right. The score:

Caught Between Innings.

Ferguson certainly did himself proud in his home city.

Rapp, the South Bend pitcher has not pitched three games. He has always stood he will play with Laporte next week.

Anderson is said to be the greatest pitch hitter in the league. He is in the ninth was the game for South Bend.

Grant and Groesbeck were the goods yesterday and put up a great game around that second bag. Grant is making himself famous for the territory which he covers.

Tieman has every catcher in the league beaten to a standstill. He is far ahead of Onslow, of Fort Wayne while Holmes, of the "Hunt" is a novice when compared to the South Bender.

The South Bend team left for Evansville at six o'clock last night over the Chicago & Eastern Illinois. The team will pass through Terre Haute on the return to Fort Wayne.

THE CENTRAL LEAGUE DIAMOND.

News of Players Which Will Interest the Fans.

If Deggie Miller ever was sensitive about the quantity and quality of the "razzing" he gets from the bleachers, there is no evidence of it now. He has had a great many years to get over his sensitiveness.

Sheridan Crofter, who is said to have lost $7500 on his Minnie, 2d, last this season, will try it again and has signed a new team. The first game will be with the Matthews Giants July 4.

Not one word of mud chucker has been said by the press of Grand Rapids. It is a shifty country up north.

Jockey Gastright, in the best of condition, was forced into his game at Fort Wayne this week owing to the condition of Gettlick.

The player who can hit high balls under the electric lights usually misses the batter in the daytime.

The Wheeling Intelligencer recently received the following letter: "Sir.—To settle a wager, will you please state if Jack Wright or "Doggie" Miller or "Jack" Glasscock is either as old as "Jack" Glasscock."

The answer which that paper furnished was as follows:

"Miller is much older than Wright. Doggie started life as a barber and used to shave Wright's pa. As a barefooted youngster, Jack Glasscock stole into a ball park in the early '70s and it was while watching Miller's work that Jack got his ambition to become a ball player."

"A little hot-headedness on the part of Grand Rapids at Marion was soon suppressed by the majority of players on the Marion Leader. "The man who made the most noise, Harry Spindel by name, an infielder, under Knight's direction. These affairs are unfortunate and should not be countenanced. A player is placed on the team that leases that local league of a Chesbrough with the umpire's decision, had a capital shortstop, yet forgot that he has more than his own interest to serve in playing ball. Marion has been fortunate this season, yesterday being the first time that a team has left the field during a game."

"Buck Ryley tells a good one on Jack Orkin," says the Fort Wayne Journal-Gazette. "He says that about team years ago, before either of them entered professional game, they were opposing pitchers in a game down in Ohio. The score was 1 to 0 in the ninth inning when Jack came to bat in the last half of the ninth. There were two men out and the bases were full. Buck hit a foul and started down towards first, when Jack told him to run like an ice wagon, and Buck reported that he could beat Jack running. It was agreed that Buck was to stop the base when Jack was to drop the ball and then run him down. They did as they agreed, only Buck ran clear around the bases and scored before Jack could catch him. He sent three men to third of him and won the game for his team."

Dennis Bodie, who was a member of being one of the strongest pitchers in the Central league, has proved patron on President Hatterman that he had made a great bad. Hatterman decided to keep Bodie with the team, but no promises could change his mind.

MYERS LINDSEY IN OUT.

Grand Rapids Franchise Becomes Property of the League.

The Tribune's Special Service.

Marion, Ind., July 1.—The Anderson, Ind., baseball association, owner of the Grand Rapids, Central league team, has forfeited its franchise because of delinquency of dues to the league and failure to pay back salaries.

A meeting was held at Marion Wednesday and Thursday and after the matter was thoroughly considered President Sunday took charge of the club. The directors of the league have paid up all players in full and will continue to manage the team until July 15, when an assessment of Grand Rapids club upon Central league clubs will become effective. A new club will be built in the heart of the southern district of Grand Rapids and will be ready for the game July 15.

That McVey Lindsey should take his interest in the Grand Rapids team is not a surprise to other clubs in the Central league. When the Midgets were playing in South Bend a few weeks ago, Capt. "Mun" Warrender said to the sporting editor of the Tribune that the financial condition of the club was not satisfactory and that it was doubtful if the team would return to Grand Rapids. Had under the circumstances, it would have been a mistake.

PITCHER CRAGILL PREACHES.

Baseball Player Holds Attention of Audience For an Hour.

South Washington and St. Louis American are after Pitcher Cragill. The chances are that he will go to St. Louis.

If the injunction secured by the Chicago American league baseball club against George Davis, playing at shortstop for the giants in Chicago is decided it is likely that President Brush of the National league team in New York will secure an injunction against Elberfeld playing at shortstop for the invaders in New York. It will then be a war to the death between the two clubs in New York.

E. G. Cradill, the star pitcher for the Columbus American association baseball team preached the regular Sunday night sermon at Sulgrove Army hall in Lafayette last Sunday, Seventh and Market streets. He held the attention of his auditors with his unique style of oratory. He used slang freely, but with good effect. Cradill says that he believes he has been called to preach the Gospel, but that the fascination of the diamond is so strong upon him that he cannot quit the game altogether. Before joining the Columbus team he had a church at Hampton, N. Y., and made many converts.

COMMENT OF THE PRESS.

South Bend Recorded as a Pennant Winner by Dayton Journal.

A few opinions of the press of the Central league circuit are as follows:

Dayton Journal—If South Bend does not win the pennant, she will be awful close. Tom News says that South Bend has been playing in the greatest kind of luck, and that the break will come soon. At any rate the kind of ball the Greens have been putting up is plenty to give confidence in her ability to do things.

The South Bend Greens have won 11 straight games and have lost four out of 16. The team has made a wonderful stride in the percentage column within the last two weeks as a result.

Fort Wayne Journal Gazette—It was not long ago that Marion, after all, as Marion and South Bend slept get the stamps put to them.

Fort Wayne News—Manager News, who owns an interest in the Evansville, jointly with President Bennett of the league, showed his teeth yesterday, and it would appear that he thought he had more rights than any other field captain. He taken advantage of his position and not only attempts to bully the umpire but he succeeds in doing it to a white heat.

FATHER AND SON PLAY BALL.

James O'Rourke Leaves Yale to Join Professional Team.

New Haven, Conn., July 1.—James O'Rourke Jr., has thrown up the position of third baseman on the Yale nine to join the Bridgeport, Conn., league team, which is managed and owned by his father, the veteran National leaguer. This is the first instance on record of a Yale man giving up the chance of playing again on his college team to join a professional club. It is the first instance on record also of father and son playing on the same professional team.

New Idea in Football.

Arthur Baird, Northwestern's crack football player and track athlete, is a letter to a student friend at Evanston, Ill., which he says he desires to have made public, accuses the faculty of the law school of that institution of conspiring to prevent his graduation in order that he may return to Northwestern and play on the football team. Dean Kales and Wigmore and Profs. Kales and Little are the unruly members accused by the football man of the conspiracy.

Local Game To-morrow.

The South Bend Reserves and Mishawaka Greys will play at Springbrook park to-morrow afternoon. These teams are the strongest independent clubs in northern Indiana and will put up a good game. The Reserves will play the Whiting Greys at Springbrook Sunday afternoon.

BEAUTIES OF RIVERVIEW.

Many Improvements Going on in the New Suburban Cemetery.

The attractive features of the city selected for a suburban cemetery for South Bend, and given the appropriate name of Riverview, are gradually expanding into one of the most beautiful places of the kind in Indiana. Its location on one of the most picturesque bluffs of the St. Joseph river, where nature has done its most artistic work, is more and more seen to be a desirable place for a city of the dead for this community, and the association that made the venture has spared no pains in the way of artistic adornment and the equipment of the grounds with the necessary accommodations.

The large receiving tomb left in an incomplete state last season is now finished and the addition to its fresco walls, a serviceable roof of tile and a broad cement walk in front. With the woodbine, shrubs and flower beds the surroundings of the tomb will be greatly improved the present season. The tomb is now in the utility purposes is complete and ready for occupancy.

Many new monuments have been erected in the cemetery this season, one of the latest being a white marble memorial over the resting place of the late Senator A. M. Burns.

The Oliver mausoleum in process of construction will be completed in a few weeks. It occupies an imposing site in the center of the grounds and is one of the largest and costly structures of its kind in this portion of Indiana. A considerable force of men is now engaged in placing the immense granite blocks of its outer walls in position and the work is being done in the most thorough and substantial manner.

Superintendent Barker is constantly adding to the beauty of the grounds in the laying out of flower beds, the planting of trees, shrubs and vines and the removal of everything of an unsightly nature. New avenues are being laid out and graveled and it is expected that the Portage road leading from the city to the cemetery will be greatly improved the present year. The design is to macadamize it and make it the equal in width of the Michigan road, with a level grade from the city's line to the cemetery gates. It is probable that when the highway improvements are considered the Portage street car line will be extended on Portage avenue to the cemetery.

DUTIES OF "MY" DOCTOR.

Physicians of Millionaires Must Be Up to Date.

Such a man as Rockefeller or Morgan is a life study for a physician, and the man who can keep in perfect order a human machine of vast importance in the community is worthy of Schwabian compensation. The big insurance companies are willing to employ a physician at $100,000 a year to keep either of the gentlemen mentioned alive ten years longer. "My" doctor is such a case must know what medicine to prescribe whenever Morgan or Rockefeller sneezes, frowns, sewers, Hays, grunts, growls, thunders, kicks over the waste basket, smokes too many cigars, drinks too much water, eats too heartily of corned beef and cabbage, talks too much to his Bible class, charges too small a commission for promoting a trust or reorganizing a railroad, telegraphs sensitive to bid up anti-trust legislation, or commits any other little indiscretion that Millionaire Sash is hold to. He must be familiar with the slightest symptom and ready with his dose.—New York Press.

Neighborly Neglect.

Every one knows the dullness of the country person to interfere with his neighbors. A good instance has just occurred in the Midlands. Farmer Jarvis, driving to market, sent through the open door of a barn the body of a neighbor suspended from a beam, and drove on, revolving the tragedy. When he reached the market town he imparted the news with deliberate emphasis. "Good heavens!" exclaimed the other, "and did you cut him down?" "No," said the farmer more slowly still, "he wasn't dead yet."—London Globe.

The Ruler of Morocco.

The Sultan of Morocco is described as a progressive young man whose misfortunes are quite undeserved. Though he grew up in the seclusion of an Oriental palace and had no real education from the western point of view, he has thrown off the cramping influence of early training and has keen to acquire knowledge. Europeans who have visited his court have been struck by his unusual intelligence, and they say he actually does possess a rough working acquaintance with the practical side of modern science.

The Only Fourth of July Celebration

in the city will be under the auspices of the Trinity Presbyterian church up on the church grounds, Colfax avenue and North St. Peter street, Saturday, July 4, commencing at 1 p. m. The church auditorium, with speaches reading Declaration of Independence and singing, formed by sports for the boys and girls upon the lawn and display of fireworks in the evening. Lemonade, ice cream, etc., will be on sale. The exercises will be entirely free from rain or shine. Everybody invited. 152
