OCCULT POWER IS BASIS OF SUIT

WOMAN SAID TO HAVE SECURED $40,000.

Complaint Charges That Sum Was Obtained by Employment of Suint Method.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Sensational charges of occult power were made in the district superior court yesterday in connection with the suit which has been brought against Mrs. Cramer, the Mrs. Eddy of Washington, by relatives of aged Leo M. Hurd from whom, it is alleged, Mrs. Cramer obtained about $40,000 by means of spirit communications.

Three months ago it developed, as the relatives declare, that Mr. Cramer, has practiced some kind of spiritualistic influence over Hurd, who is a retired capitalist, formerly of Greenville, Conn., and had systematically taken his entire income from him.

Only after the state detectives and the family of the discovery was made that Hurd was being robbed of his money by means of spirit communications, which they claimed had been taken from Hurd by Mrs. Cramer, the Hurd family found out that the rich old man's most cherished possessions were gifts and were the result of a strong attachment which Hurd felt for her. She denied that she had exerted any undue influence over Hurd.

While depositions were being taken in the case, according to the affidavit filed to-day, dramatic scenes were enacted, and even violence was reported to, it is alleged, to prevent her from continuing the testimony Hurd was giving.

In one affidavit filed by Attorney Arthur A. Birney, who represents Mrs. Cramer, it is viewed that when Mr. Hurd, who is a feeble old man of 78 years old, was
